1 REVISED UNIFORM PARENTAGE ACT 3 Drafted by: 4 National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws (NCCUSL) 5 111 N. Wabash Avenue, Suite 1010, Chicago, IL 60602 6 312-450-6600, www.uniformlaws.org 7 8 Brief description of act: 9 The Uniform Parentage Act (UPA) was originally promulgated in 1973 (1973 UPA). The 1973 10 UPA removed the legal status of illegitimacy and provided a series of presumptions used to 11 determine a child's legal parentage. A core principle of the 1973 UPA was to ensure that "all 12 children and all parents have equal rights with respect to each other," regardless of the marital 13 status of their parents. 1973 UPA, Section 2, Comment. 14 15 The UPA was amended-revised in 2002 (UPA 2002). The 2002 UPA augmented and streamlined 16 the original 1973 UPA. The 2002 UPA added provisions permitting a non-judicial 17 acknowledgment of paternity procedure that is the equivalent of an adjudication of parentage in a 18 court and added a paternity registry. The 2002 UPA also included provisions governing genetic testing and rules for determining the parentage of children whose conception was not the result 19 20 of sexual intercourse. Finally, the 2002 UPA included a bracketed Article 8 that authorizes 21 surrogacy agreements. 22 23 The 2017 UPA updates-revises the Act to address three primary issues. First, the 2017 UPA 24 seeks to ensure the equal treatment of children born to same-sex couples. The 2002 UPA is 25 written in gendered terms, and its provisions presume that couples consist of one man and one 26 woman. For example, Section 703 of the 2002 UPA provides that "[a] man who provides sperm 27 for, or consents to, assisted reproduction by a woman as provided in Section 704 with the intent 28 to be the parent of her child, is a parent of the resulting child." 29 30 In its 2015 decision in Obergefell v. Hodges, 135 S. Ct. 2584 (2015), the United States Supreme 31 Court held that laws barring marriage between two people of the same sex are unconstitutional. 32 After Obergefell, some parentage laws that treat same-sex couples differently than different-sex couples may be unconstitutional. For example, in July 2015, a federal district court in Utah held 33 34 that refusing to apply Utah's assisted reproduction parentage provisions equally to same-sex 35 couples likely was unconstitutional. Under the Utah Uniform Parentage Act, which is modeled 36 on the 2002 UPA, a husband who consents to his wife's insemination is the legal father of the 37 resulting child. Utah Code Ann. §§ 78B-15-703, 78B-15-704; 78B-15-201(2)(e). The court concluded that the plaintiffs were "highly likely to succeed in their claim" that extending the 38 39 "benefits of the assisted reproduction statutes to male spouses in opposite-sex couples but not for 40 female spouses in same-sex couples" was unconstitutional. Roe v. Patton, 2015 WL 4476734, *3 41 (D. Utah. 2015). The 2017 UPA updates the Act to address this potential constitutional infirmity 42 by amending the provisions so that they address and apply equally to same-sex couples. 43 44 Second, the 2017 UPA updates the surrogacy provisions to reflect developments in that area.

States have been particularly slow to enact Article 8 of the 2002 UPA. Eleven (11) states adopted versions of the 2002 UPA. Of these eleven (11) states, only two (2) – Texas and Utah – enacted the surrogacy provisions based on Article 8 of the 2002 UPA. At least five (5) of the eleven (11) states that enacted the 2002 UPA enacted surrogacy provisions that are not premised on the 2002 UPA. These states include: Delaware (permitting) (enacted 2013); Illinois (permitting) (enacted 2004); Maine (permitting) (enacted 2015); North Dakota (banning) (enacted 2005); and Washington (banning compensated) (enacted 1989).

The fact that very few states enacted Article 8 is likely the result of a confluence of factors. One likely factor is the controversial nature of surrogacy itself. But the fact that four of the states that enacted the 2002 UPA have provisions permitting surrogacy that are not modeled on Article 8 of the 2002 UPA suggests that the small number of enactments is also affected by the substance of Article 8. Accordingly, the 2017 UPA updates the surrogacy provisions to make them more consistent with current surrogacy practice.

Finally, the 2017 UPA includes a new article – Article 9 – that addresses the right of children born through assisted reproductive technology to access medical and identifying information regarding any gamete providers. Based on data from 2014, the CDC reports that "approximately 1.6% of all infants born in the United States every year are conceived using ART." Data suggest that this percentage continues to increase. Gaia Bernstein, Unintended Consequences: Prohibitions on Gamete Donor Anonymity and the Fragile Practice of Surrogacy, 10 Ind. Health L. Rev. 291, 298 (2013) (noting that "from 2004 to 2008 the number of IVF cycles used for gestational surrogacy grew by 60%, the number of births by gestational surrogates grew by 53% and the number of babies born to gestational surrogates grew by 89%"). Accordingly, it is increasingly important for states to address the right of children to access information about their gamete donor. Article 9 does not require disclosure of the identity of gamete providers, but it does require gamete banks and fertility clinics to ask donors if they want to have their identifying information disclosed when the resulting child turns 18.

Only limited amendments were made to Articles 1-5. Accordingly, Articles 1-5 are presented in amendment form, and changes to Articles 1-5 are reflected in strike and underscore. More substantial changes were made to Articles 6-10. As a result, reading Articles 6-10 in amendment form proved difficult. Accordingly, the Drafting Committee decided that these articles should be presented in revision form. The Drafting Committee did, however, created a comparison document that shows the changes to Articles 6-10. On June 2, 2016, the Scope and Program Committee approved the submission of the Act in a hybrid amendment/revision format and approved the ability of the Drafting Committee to make nonsubstantive, structural changes to the Act. On June 10, 2016, the Executive Committee approved these requests.

Notes about ULC Acts:

For information on the specific drafting rules used by ULC, the Conference Procedural and Drafting Manual is available online at www.uniformlaws.org.

Because these are uniform acts, it is important to keep the numbering sequence intact while drafting.

11 I 12 b 13 b

In general, the use of bracketed language in ULC acts indicates that a choice must be made between alternate bracketed language, or that specific language must be inserted into the empty brackets. For example: "An athlete agent who violates Section 14 is guilty of a [misdemeanor] [felony] and, upon conviction, is punishable by [].

14 15

A word, number, or phrase, or even an entire section, may be placed in brackets to indicate that the bracketed language is suggested but may be changed to conform to state usage or requirements, or to indicate that the entire section is optional. For example: "An applicant for registration shall submit an application for registration to the [Secretary of State] in a form prescribed by the [Secretary of State]. [An application filed under this section is a public record.] The application must be in the name of an individual, and, except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), signed or otherwise authenticated by the applicant under penalty of perjury."

1	REVISED UNIFORM PARENTAGE ACT
2	ARTICLE 1
3	GENERAL PROVISIONS
4 5 6 7 8 9	A word about a drafting convention of the Conference that appears throughout this Act. Brackets in the statutory text are inserted to warn legislative draftsmen in the several states that the suggested language is likely to be subject to local variation. For example, a state may not refer to UPA (2017) as an "[act]," but may label it as a "chapter,", "title," etc. Often times the brackets flag terminology that is known to vary greatly, e.g., [petition], or is clearly subject to local option, e.g., [30 days].
11	SECTION 101. SHORT TITLE. This [act] may be cited as the Revised Uniform
12	Parentage Act.
13	SECTION 102. DEFINITIONS. In this [act]
14	(1) "Acknowledged father" means a man who has established a father-child relationship
15	under [Article] 3.
16	(2) "Adjudicated parent" means an individual who has been adjudicated by a court of
17	competent jurisdiction to be the parent of a child.
18	(3) "Alleged father" means a man who alleges himself to be, or is alleged to be, the
19	genetic father or a possible genetic father of a child, but whose paternity has not been
20	determined. The term does not include:
21	(A) a presumed father;
22	(B) a man whose parental rights have been terminated or declared not to exist; or
23	(C) a male donor.
24	(4) "Assisted reproduction" means a method of causing pregnancy other than sexual
25	intercourse. The term includes:
26	(A) intrauterine insemination;
27	(B) donation of eggs;

Commented [CJ1]: Would it be clearer if we replaced "alleged father" with "alleged genetic father"?

1	(C) donation of embryos;
2	(D) in-vitro fertilization and transfer of embryos; and
3	(E) intracytoplasmic sperm injection.
4	(5) "Child" means an individual of any age whose parentage may be determined under
5	this [act].
6	(6) "Commence" means to file the initial pleading seeking an adjudication of parentage in
7	[the appropriate court] of this state.
8	(6) "De facto parent" means an individual adjudicated to be a parent under Section 205 of
9	this [act].
10	(7) "Determination of parentage" means the establishment of the parent-child relationship
11	by the signing of a valid acknowledgment of paternity under [Article] 3 or adjudication by the
12	court.
13	(8) "Donor" means an individual who produces gametes used for assisted reproduction,
14	whether or not for consideration, unless the individual and the woman giving birth enter into a
15	record providing to the contrary. The term does not include:
16	(A) a woman who gives birth to a child by means of assisted reproduction [,
17	except as otherwise provided in [Article] 8]; or
18	(B) a parent under [Article] 7 [or an intended parent under [Article] 8].; or
19	(C) an individual who provides gametes for use in assisted reproduction where the
20	individual and the woman giving birth both consent to the use of assisted reproduction with the
21	intent that the individual will be the parent of the resulting child.
22	(9) "Ethnic or racial group" means, for purposes of genetic testing, a recognized group

Commented [JDP2]: Guida (RI) suggests adding the following to the end of the definition: "and to the extent that there is more than one (1) child resulting from any single pregnancy that is the subject of this act, the duties and responsibilities of the parent, intended parent, and surrogate set forth in this act shall extend to each such child resulting from such single pregnancy."

CJ: I don't think that is necessary. The usual rules of statutory construction require the singular to include the plural

Formatted: Not Highlight

Commented [CJ3]: I changed "writing" to "record" per comment of Mary Louise Fellows.

Commented [CJ4]: Observer Polikoff suggests that this subsection should be revised so that the provider is a donor unless the donor and the woman giving birth enter into a writing to the contrary. Some states, including Kansas, have provisions like this. See, e.g., Kan. Stat. Ann. S 23-2208(f) ("The donor of semen provided to a licensed physician for use in artificial insemination of a woman other than the donor's wife is treated in law as if he were not the birth farther ... unless agreed to in writing by the donor and the woman."

I inserted language to this effect for consideration.

that an individual identifies as all or part of the individual's ancestry or that is so identified by

2	(10) "Genetic testing" means an analysis of genetic markers to exclude or identify a man
3	as the genetic father or a woman as the genetic mother of a child. The term includes an analysis
4	of one or a combination of the following:
5	(A) deoxyribonucleic acid; and
6	(B) blood-group antigens, red-cell antigens, human-leukocyte antigens, serum
7	enzymes, serum proteins, or red-cell enzymes.
8	[(11) "Genetic surrogate" means an adult woman who is not an intended parent and who
9	agrees to become pregnant through assisted reproduction using her own gamete, pursuant to a
10	genetic surrogacy agreement as set forth in [Article] 8.]
11	[(12) "Gestational surrogate" means an adult woman who is not an intended parent and
12	who agrees to become pregnant through assisted reproduction using gametes that are not her
13	own, pursuant to a gestational surrogacy agreement as set forth in [Article] 8.]
14	(13) "Identifying information" includes the following information of the donor:
15	(A) the first and last name of the individual; and
16	(B) the age of the individual at the time of donation.
17	(14) "Individual" means a natural person of any age.
18	(15) "Individual with a claim to parentage" means any individual who has a claim to be
19	adjudicated a parent under this [act], but who has not yet been adjudicated to be a parent and
20	who is not a parent as a matter of law under the [act]. The term "Individual with a claim to
21	parentage" includes presumed parents, and individuals identified as genetic parents under
22	Section 505, and individuals alleged to be de facto parents.
23	(16) "Intended parent" means an individual, married or unmarried, who manifests the other information.

Commented [CJ5]: Cutrona (DE) asks wonders whether this term should be gender neutral.

Commented [CJ6]: Behr (AK).

Commented [CJ7]: Behr (AK) suggests replacing "Individual with a claim to parentage" with "The term"

Commented [CJ8]: CJ: This definition may need to be revisited after a decision is made about numerosity. If a child can have more than two legal parents, then this definition may need to include people who are parents as a matter of law under Articles 7 and 8.

1	intent to be legally be	ound as the parent	of a child resulting	from assisted reproduction.
1	intent to be regain, o	ound as the parent	or a cliffa resulting	mom assisted reproduction

2 (17) "Man" means a male individual of any age.

- (18) "Parent" means an individual who has established a parent-child relationship under Section 201.
 - (19) "Parent-child relationship" means the legal relationship between a child and a parent of the child. The term includes the mother-child relationship and the father-child relationship.
 - (20) "Paternity index" means the likelihood of genetic paternity calculated by computing the ratio between:
 - (A) the likelihood that the tested man is the genetic father, based on the genetic markers of the tested man, mother, and child, conditioned on the hypothesis that the tested man is the genetic father of the child; and
 - (B) the likelihood that the tested man is not the genetic father, based on the genetic markers of the tested man, mother, and child, conditioned on the hypothesis that the tested man is not the genetic father of the child and that the genetic father is of the same ethnic or racial group as the tested man.
 - (21) "Presumed parent" means an individual who, by operation of law under Section 204, is recognized as the parent of a child until that status is rebutted or confirmed in a judicial proceeding.
 - (22) "Probability of paternity" means the measure, for the ethnic or racial group to which the alleged father belongs, of the probability that the man in question is the father of the child, compared with a random, unrelated man of the same ethnic or racial group, expressed as a percentage incorporating the paternity index and a prior probability.
 - (23) "Record" means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored

1	in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form.
2	(24) "Signatory" means an individual who authenticates a record and is bound by its
3	terms.
4	(25) "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the
5	United States Virgin Islands, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of
6	the United States.
7	(26) "Support-enforcement agency" means a public official or agency authorized to seek
8	(A) enforcement of support orders or laws relating to the duty of support;
9	(B) establishment or modification of child support;
10	(C) determination of parentage; or
11	(D) location of child-support obligors and their income and assets.
12	[(27) "Surrogacy agreement" means an agreement under [Article] 8 by which a woman
13	agrees to become pregnant through assisted reproduction with the intention that she will
14	relinquish the resulting child to the intended parent or parents. Unless otherwise specified, the
15	term "surrogaey agreement" The term refers to such an agreement regardless of the surrogate's
16	genetic connection to the resulting child or lack thereof.]
17	(28) "Woman" means a female individual of any age.

Commented [CJ9]: Behr (AK) suggests amending this sentence to read: "The term refers to the agreement regardless of the surrogate's genetic connection to the resulting child or lack thereof."

Commented [CJ10]: A commissioner asked whether we need definitions of genetic surrogacy agreements and gestational surrogacy agreements.

One of the only substantive changes is with respect to the definition of donor. The draft eliminates what had been subsection (8)(A), in the definition of donor. Subsection (A) was eliminated because spouses are already excluded from the definition of donor under new Subsection (8)(B) (former Subsection (8)(C)), so long as they consented to the assisted reproduction with the intention to be a parent. If a spouse has not consented to the assisted reproduction with the intention to be a parent, then such an individual is and should be considered a donor, unless the conditions of Section 705 are met. If subsection (A) is retained, it must be made gender neutral. If retained, it should provide: "(A) a person who provides a gamete or gametes to be used for assisted reproduction by his or her spouse".

13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	As noted above, the 2017 UPA updates the act so that it applies equally to children born to same-sex couples. Most of the mechanisms for establishing parentage apply equally without regard to gender. Accordingly, the 2017 UPA merges into a single list what had been separate provisions for establishing the parentage of women and men, respectively. This approach removes unnecessary distinctions based on gender. This approach is also consistent with the approach taken by a number of states that have amended their parentage provisions to apply equally to children born to same-sex couples. See, e.g. , ME. STAT., tit. § 1851; N.H. REV. STAT. § 168-B:2.

Commented [CJ16]: Although I agree that Cannel's suggested language is clearer, we may want to retain the language that has been part of the UPA since 1973.

Commented [CJ18]: This new language is proposed by Commissioner Tindall (TX). This language closely tracks the language in the original, 1973 UPA. Unlike the language in the 2000/2002 UPA, this language makes clear that parents are also protected from discrimination on the basis of marital status. See, e.g., Glona v. Amer. Guar. Liab. Ins. Co. (1968) (holding that a Louisiana law that precluded mothers from suing for the wrongful death of their nonmarital children was unconstitutional).

Reporter's Comment

1. MARITAL PRESUMPTIONS AND GENDER NEUTRALITY

 To comply with the Supreme Court's decision in Obergefell v. Hodges, the marital presumptions have been amended to apply to any spouse -- male and female -- of the woman who gave birth. A number of states have made similar changes to their marital presumptions. See, e.g., CAL. FAM. CODE § 7611; D.C. CODE ANN. § 16-909; 750 ILL. COMP. STAT. ANN. § 46/204; ME. STAT., tit. § 1881(1); N.H. REV. STAT. § 168-B:2(V).

One state – Washington State – has gone further than the above draft goes. The newly revised Washington marital presumption is fully gender neutral; it establishes a presumption of parentage in any spouse – male of female – of any parent – male or female. Specifically, Wash. Rev. Code Ann. § 26-26-116 provides that "a person is presumed to be the parent of a child if: The person and the mother or father of the child are married to each other … and the child is born during the marriage." Thus, under the Washington Statute, a wife is presumed to be the legal parent of the biological child of her husband conceived in an extramarital relationship and born to a woman not his wife.

The committee decided not to adopt a fully gender-neutral marital presumption for a number of reasons. First, of the seven states that have amended their marital presumptions to account for same-sex marriage, only one state – Washington State – has adopted a fully gender-neutral version of the marital presumption. The other six states have adopted provisions similar to the provision above.

Second, in practice, a fully-gender neutral marital presumption would rarely establish the Commented [CJ24]: A number of people have raised questions about this provision. I think we should discuss whether the presumption based on subsequent marriage should be retained at all, particularly if we include a holding out presumption and the de facto parent provision. Who do we intend to protect with this presumption? And does it work appropriately?

Commented [CJ25]: Jack Davies (MN) suggests (I think... hard to read): "the individual's own child."

Commented [CJ26]: Atwood (AZ) wonders whether it is better to combine the concept into the prior sentence to be something like: "for the first two years of the child's life, including a period of temporary absence, the individual resided..."

Commented [CJ27]: Elisa White noted that this "wording is confusing." She suggested the following: "is counted as part of the two-year period."

parentage of the spouse of a male parent. This is the case because the act provides that the woman who gives birth is a legal parent. Section 201(a)(1). Thus, in the hypothetical described above where a male spouse conceives a child with a woman not his wife, despite the fully gender-neutral marital presumption, a court nonetheless would be likely to conclude that the legal parents of the resulting child are the male spouse and the woman who gave birth to the child. The court would be unlikely to conclude that the man's wife was a legal parent.

2. HOLDING OUT PRESUMPTION – SECTION 204(a)(5)

There was a discussion at the in-person drafting meeting about making the "holding out" period more flexible. Language has been added to the holding out provision to account for situations where the person is absent only temporarily. The language is taken-modeled on from the UCCJEA's definition of "home state." See UCCJEA § 102(7) ("A period of temporary absence of any of the mentioned persons is part of the period."). Some members of the committee expressed interest in eliminating the requirement of a two-year holding out period.

3. COMPETING PRESUMPTIONS

The 1973 UPA contained a provision addressing cases involving competing presumptions. Section (4)(b) of the 1973 UPA provides, in relevant part: "If two or more presumptions arise which conflict with each other, the presumption which on the facts is founded on the weightier considerations of policy and logic controls."

The 2002 UPA contains no provision addressing how courts should resolve cases in which there are competing presumptions of parentage. Given that there is a range of circumstances that could result in more than one person claiming a presumption of parentage, it is important for the act to address this possibility. Section 204(b) now references the possibility that a court might have to resolve competing presumptions of parentage. Newly added Section 612 provides factors that a court must consider in resolving such cases.

SECTION 205. DE FACTO PARENTAGE,

(a) A de facto parent is an individual who fully and completely undertook an unequivocal, committed, and responsible parental role in the child's life during the child's minority. Such a finding requires a determination by the court that, during the child's minority, the individual;

(1) resided with the child for a significant period of time;

(2) engaged in consistent caretaking of the child;

(3) accepted full and permanent responsibilities as a parent of the child without federal subsidy by a state for its child support enforcement program is contingent on state enactment of laws establishing specific procedures for "a simple civil process for voluntarily acknowledging paternity." If a state does not have such provisions or if its provisions are not in compliance with federal law, the state is at risk of losing its federal child support subsidy. See, e.g., 42 U.S.C. § 666(a) (providing that "each State must have in effect laws requiring the use of the following procedures, consistent with this section and with regulations of the Secretary"). See also 42 U.S.C. § 654(20)(A). Today, all states have adopted procedures for voluntary acknowledgments of paternity. Indeed, "[v]oluntary acknowledgments have become the most common way to establish the legal paternity of children born outside marriage." Leslie Joan Harris, Voluntary Acknowledgments of Parentage for Same-Sex Couples, 20 Am. U. J. GENDER Soc. Pol'y & L. 467, 469-70 (2012) (footnotes omitted).

Currently, Article 3 refers only to the establishment of paternity through this administrative process. Some members of the Drafting Committee feel that women should also be able to establish their parentage through a similar, streamlined administrative process.

The Drafting Committee considered a number of the possibilities to implement this goal. The Drafting Committee considered creating a parallel procedure that would apply to same-sex couples. At the moment, however, the Drafting Committee has decided against adding separate provisions that would apply only to same-sex couples. Singling out same-sex couples was deemed by some members to be in tension with the charge of making the act apply equally to the children of same-sex couples.

The Drafting Committee also considered two other possibilities: (1) revising the existing Article 3 so that it is written in gender-neutral terms; or (2) adding an alternative, bracketed version of Article 3 that is written in gender-neutral terms. If a gender-neutral Article 3 is enacted by a state, it must meet the requirements of 42 U.S.C. § 666(a)(5)(C) and not prohibit state child support agencies from establishing paternity in appropriate cases. According to the federal Office of Child Support Enforcement (OCSE), revising Article 3 so that it is gender neutral would not jeopardize the state's receipt of the federal child support subsidy as long as the state is able to meet the requirements of 42 U.S.C. § 666(a)(5)(C) and establish paternity in appropriate cases. OCSE has indicated a willingness to work with the Drafting Committee to ensure the revised UPA is consistent with title IV-D requirements.

SECTION 301. ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF PATERNITY. The woman who gave birth to a child and a man claiming to be the genetic father of the child may sign an acknowledgment of paternity with intent to establish the man's paternity.

SECTION 302. EXECUTION OF ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF PATERNITY.

- (a) An acknowledgment of paternity must:
- (1) be in a record;

(2) be signed, or otherwise authenticated, under penalty of perjury by the woman who gave birth and by the man seeking to establish his paternity;
(3) state that the child whose paternity is being acknowledged:
(A) does not have a presumed parent, or has a presumed parent whose full name is stated; and
(B) does not have another acknowledged father, or an adjudicated parent or parents under [Article] 7 other than the woman who gave birth;
(4) state whether there has been genetic testing and, if so, that the acknowledging man's claim of paternity is consistent with the results of the testing; and
(5) state that the signatories understand that the acknowledgment is the equivalent of an adjudication of paternity of the child and that a challenge to the acknowledgment is permitted only under limited circumstances and is barred after two years from the effective date of the acknowledgement.
(b) An acknowledgment of paternity is void if:
(1) another individual is a presumed parent at the time of signing, unless a denial of parentage signed or otherwise authenticated by the presumed parent is filed with the [agency maintaining birth records];
(2) another an individual other than the woman who gave birth is an adjudicated parent or a parent under [Article] 7 at the time of signing; or
(3) another man is an acknowledged father at the time of signing.
(c) A presumed father may sign or otherwise authenticate an acknowledgment of paternity.
Reporter's Comment

Section 302 has been amended to reflect the fact that presumed parents can be men or women. The Committee also made a substantive change to Subsection (b) to better reflect what we believe is the actual intent of the provision. The change makes clear that the VAP is void if another person other than the woman who gave birth is a presumed, acknowledged, or adjudicated parent. As previously drafted, the VAP was void only if it stated that there was another presumed, acknowledged, or adjudicated parent. Thus, under the 2002 UPA, the VAP was void only if the person knowingly lied on the form. As a result, under the 2002 UPA, the VAP could cut off potential claims of other individuals so long as the signatories did not lie. The amendments better protect the rights of other individuals who are presumed, acknowledged, or adjudicated parents. If Subsection (b) is so amended, then what had previously been (b)(3) is no longer necessary.
SECTION 303. DENIAL OF PARENTAGE. A presumed parent may sign a denial of parentage. The denial is valid only if:
(1) an acknowledgment of paternity signed, or otherwise authenticated, by another man is filed pursuant to Section 305;
(2) the denial is in a record, and is signed, or otherwise authenticated, under penalty of perjury; and
(3) the presumed parent has not previously:
(A) acknowledged his paternity, unless the previous acknowledgment has been rescinded pursuant to Section 308 or successfully challenged pursuant to Section 309; or
(B) been adjudicated to be the parent of the child.
SECTION 304. RULES FOR ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF PATERNITY AND
DENIAL OF PARENTAGE.
(a) An acknowledgment of paternity and a denial of parentage may be contained in a single document or may be signed in counterparts, and may be filed separately or simultaneously. If the acknowledgement and denial are both necessary, neither is valid until both are filed.

(b) An acknowledgment of paternity or a denial of parentage may be signed before the birth of the child.

(c) Subject to subsection (a), an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of parentage takes effect on the birth of the child or the filing of the document with the [agency maintaining birth records], whichever occurs later.
(d) An acknowledgment of paternity or denial of parentage signed by a minor is valid if it is otherwise in compliance with this [act].
SECTION 305. EFFECT OF ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF PATERNITY OR
DENIAL OF PARENTAGE.
(a) Except as otherwise provided in Sections 308 and 309, a valid acknowledgment of paternity filed with the [agency maintaining birth records] is equivalent to an adjudication of parentage of a child and confers upon the acknowledged father all of the rights and duties of a parent.
(b) Except as otherwise provided in Sections 308 and 309, a valid denial of parentage by a presumed parent filed with the [agency maintaining birth records] in conjunction with a valid acknowledgment of paternity is equivalent to an adjudication of the nonparentage of the presumed parent and discharges the presumed parent from all rights and duties of a parent.
SECTION 306. NO FILING FEE. The [agency maintaining birth records] may not charge for filing an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of parentage.
SECTION 307. RATIFICATION BARRED. A court or administrative agency conducting a judicial or administrative proceeding is not required or permitted to ratify an unchallenged acknowledgment of paternity.
Reporter's Comment
Based on the comments at the in-person drafting meeting, this Section has been moved up. It was previously included as Section 310. The text of new Section 307 is identical to the text

1 2	of former Section 310 of the 2002 UPA.
3	SECTION 308. PROCEEDING FOR RESCISSION. A signatory may rescind an
4	acknowledgment of paternity or denial of parentage by commencing a proceeding to rescind
5	before the earlier of:
6	(1) 60 days after the effective date of the acknowledgment or denial, as provided in
7	Section 304; or
8	(2) the date of the first hearing, in a proceeding to which the signatory is a party, before a
9	court to adjudicate an issue relating to the child, including a proceeding that establishes support.
10	SECTION 309. CHALLENGE AFTER EXPIRATION OF PERIOD FOR
11	RESCISSION.
12	(a) After the period for rescission under Section 308 has expired, a signatory of an
13	acknowledgment of paternity or denial of parentage may commence a proceeding to challenge
14	the acknowledgment or denial only:
15	(1) on the basis of fraud, duress, or material mistake of fact; and
16	(2) not later than two years after the effective date of the acknowledgment or the
17	denial.
18	(b) A party challenging an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of parentage has the
19	burden of proof.
20	SECTION 310. PROCEDURE FOR RESCISSION OR CHALLENGE.
21	(a) Every signatory to an acknowledgment of paternity and any related denial of
22	parentage must be made a party to a proceeding to rescind or challenge the acknowledgment or
23	denial.
24	(b) For the purpose of rescission of, or challenge to, an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of parentage, a signatory submits to personal jurisdiction of this state by signing the acknowledgment or denial, effective upon the filing of the document with the [agency maintaining birth records].

- (c) Except for good cause shown, during the pendency of a proceeding to rescind or challenge an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of parentage, the court may not suspend the legal responsibilities of a signatory arising from the acknowledgment, including the duty to pay child support.
- (d) A proceeding to rescind or to challenge an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of parentage must be conducted in the same manner as a proceeding to adjudicate parentage under [Article] 6.
- (e) At the conclusion of a proceeding to rescind or challenge an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of parentage, the court shall order the [agency maintaining birth records] to amend the birth record of the child to reflect the child's legal parentage accurately, if appropriate.

Reporter's Comment

Consistent with the discussion at the in-person drafting meeting, former Section 310 has been moved up to follow Section 306.

SECTION 311. FULL FAITH AND CREDIT. A court of this state shall give full faith and credit to an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of parentage effective in another state if the acknowledgment or denial has been signed and is otherwise in compliance with the law of the other state.

2	DENIAL OF PARENTAGE.
3	(a) To facilitate compliance with this [article], the [agency maintaining birth records]

5	(b) A valid acknowledgment of paternity or denial of parentage is not affected by a later
6	modification of the prescribed form.
7	SECTION 313. RELEASE OF INFORMATION. The [agency maintaining birth
8	records] may release information relating to the acknowledgment of paternity or denial of
9	parentage to a signatory of the acknowledgment or denial and to courts and [appropriate state or
10	federal agencies] of this or another state.
11 12	Reporter's Comment
13 14 15 16	At the in-person drafting meeting, there was a discussion about whether this provision was meant to restrict the release of information, or, alternatively, to ensure some affirmative right to the information for certain enumerated parties/entities. To the extent the purpose is the former, one participant suggested adding the word "only" to better implement that goal.
17 18 19 20 21 22	At this point, the provision does not include the word "only" because the Reporter is of the opinion that there may be some other individuals who should have a right to ask a court to grant them access to the acknowledgment or the denial. Such individuals may include the child, and a presumed parent who was not a signatory to the acknowledgment or the denial.
23	SECTION 314. ADOPTION OF RULES. The [agency maintaining birth records] may

5	ONE YEAR OF AGE. The parental rights of a man who may be the genetic father of a child
6	may be terminated without notice if:
7	(1) the child has not attained one year of age at the time of the termination of parental
8	rights;
9	(2) the man did not register timely with the [agency maintaining the registry]; and
10	(3) the man is not exempt from registration under Section 402.
11	SECTION 405. TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS: CHILD AT LEAST
12	ONE YEAR OF AGE.
13	(a) If a child has attained one year of age, notice of a proceeding for adoption of, or
14	termination of parental rights regarding, the child must be given to every alleged father of the
15	child, whether or not he has registered with the [agency maintaining the registry].
16	(b) Notice must be given in a manner prescribed for service of process in a civil action.
17	PART 2
18	OPERATION OF REGISTRY
19	SECTION 411. REQUIRED FORM. The [agency maintaining the registry] shall
20	prepare a form for registering with the agency. The form must require the signature of the 21	registrant. The form must state that the form is signed under penalty of perjury. The form also
22	must state that:
23	(1) a timely registration entitles the registrant to notice of a proceeding for adoption of

1	the child or termination of the registrant's parental rights;
2	(2) a timely registration does not commence a proceeding to establish paternityparentage;
3	(3) the information disclosed on the form may be used against the registrant to establish
4	paternityparentage;
5	(4) services to assist in establishing paternity parentage are available to the registrant
6	through [the appropriate state support-enforcement agency];
7	(5) the registrant may also register in another state if conception or birth of the child
8	occurred in the other state;
9	(6) information on registries of other states is available from [appropriate state agency or
10	agencies]; and
11	(7) procedures exist to rescind the registration.
12	Reporter's Comment
13 14 15 16 17 18 19	The change to subsection (7) was made in order to make this subsection more consistent with the other provisions in this Article. There is no other provision that refers to a "registration of a claim to paternity." Elsewhere, the form is simply referred to as a "registration." See , e.g. , Sections 412 - 413. In addition, the phrase "registration of a claim of paternity" is potentially misleading; the phrase could be understood to suggest that registration provides a basis for asserting legal parentage, which it does not.
20	SECTION 412. FURNISHING OF INFORMATION; CONFIDENTIALITY.
21	(a) The [agency maintaining the registry] need not seek to locate the woman who gave
22	birth to the child who is the subject of a registration, but the [agency maintaining the registry]
23	shall send a copy of the notice of registration to a woman who gave birth to a child if she has
24	provided an address.
25	(b) Information contained in the registry is confidential and may be released on request
26	only to:
27	(1) a court or a person designated by the court;

1	(2) the woman who gave birth to the child who is the subject of the registration;
2	(3) an agency authorized by other law to receive the information;
3	(4) a licensed child-placing agency;
4	(5) a support-enforcement agency;
5	(6) a party or the party's attorney of record in a proceeding under this [act] or in a
6	proceeding for adoption of, or for termination of parental rights regarding, a child who is the
7	subject of the registration; and
8	(7) the registry of paternity in another state.
9	SECTION 413. PENALTY FOR RELEASING INFORMATION. An individual
10	commits a [appropriate level misdemeanor] if the individual intentionally releases information
11	from the registry to another individual or agency not authorized to receive the information under
12	Section 412.
13	SECTION 414. RESCISSION OF REGISTRATION. A registrant may rescind his
14	registration at any time by sending to the registry a rescission in a record signed or otherwise
15	authenticated by him, and witnessed or notarized.
16	SECTION 415. UNTIMELY REGISTRATION. If a man registers more than 30 days
17	after the birth of the child, the [agency maintaining the registry] shall notify the registrant that or
18	its face his registration was not filed timely.
19	SECTION 416. FEES FOR REGISTRY.
20	(a) A fee may not be charged for filing a registration or a rescission of registration.
21	(b) [Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), the] [The] [agency maintaining the
22	registry] may charge a reasonable fee for making a search of the registry and for furnishing a
23	certificate.

1	[(c) A support-enforcement agency [1s] [and other appropriate agencies, if any, are] not
2	required to pay a fee authorized by subsection (b).]
3	PART 3
4	SEARCH OF REGISTRIES
5	SECTION 421. SEARCH OF APPROPRIATE REGISTRY.
6	(a) If a parent-child relationship has not been established under this [act] for a child under
7	one year of age for an individual other than the woman who gave birth, a [petitioner] for
8	adoption of, or termination of parental rights regarding, the child, must obtain a certificate of
9	search of the registry of paternity.
10	(b) If a [petitioner] for adoption of, or termination of parental rights regarding, a child has
11	reason to believe that the conception or birth of the child may have occurred in another state, the
12	[petitioner] must also obtain a certificate of search from the registry of paternity, if any, in that
13	state.
14	SECTION 422. CERTIFICATE OF SEARCH OF REGISTRY.
15	(a) The [agency maintaining the registry] shall furnish to the requester a certificate of
16	search of the registry on request of an individual, court, or agency identified in Section 412.
17	(b) A certificate provided by the [agency maintaining the registry] must be signed on
18	behalf of the [agency maintaining the registry] and state that:
19	(1) a search has been made of the registry; and
20	(2) a registration containing the information required to identify the registrant:
21	(A) has been found and is attached to the certificate of search; or
22	(B) has not been found.
23	(c) A [petitioner] must file the certificate of search with the court before a proceeding for

1	adoption of, or termination of parental rights regarding, a child may be concluded.
2	SECTION 423. ADMISSIBILITY OF REGISTERED INFORMATION. A
3	certificate of search of the registry of paternity in this or another state is admissible in a
4	proceeding for adoption of, or termination of parental rights regarding, a child and, if relevant, in
5	other legal proceedings.
6	ARTICLE 5
7	GENETIC TESTING
8	SECTION 501. SCOPE OF ARTICLE.
9	(a) This [article] governs genetic testing of an individual to determine parentage, whether
10	the individual:
11	(1) voluntarily submits to testing; or
12	(2) is tested pursuant to an order of the court or a support-enforcement agency:
13	(b) Genetic testing cannot be used:
14	(1) to disestablish the parentage of an individual who is a parent under [Article] 7[
15	or Article 8]; or
16	(2) to establish the parentage of an individual who is a donor.
17 18	Reporter's Comment
19 20 21 22	There was a discussion at the in-person drafting meeting about which word to use in Subsection (b). As was true in the prior draft, Subsection (b) currently uses the term "disestablish." Other possibilities include "challenge," "nullify," or "invalidate."
23	SECTION 502. AUTHORITY TO ORDER OR TO DENY GENETIC TESTING.
24	(a) Except as otherwise provided in this [article] and [Article] 6, the court shall order the
25	child and other designated individuals to submit to genetic testing if the request for testing is
26	supported by the sworn statement of a party to the proceeding:

(1) alleging genetic parentage and stating facts establishing a reasonable probability of genetic parentage; or

- (2) denying genetic parentage and stating facts establishing a possibility that sexual contact between the individuals, if any, did not result in the conception of the child.
- (b) A support-enforcement agency may order genetic testing only if there is no presumed, acknowledged, or adjudicated parent other than the woman who gave birth.
- (c) If a request for genetic testing of a child is made before birth, the court or supportenforcement agency may not order in-utero testing.
- (d) If two or more individuals are subject to court-ordered genetic testing, the testing may be ordered concurrently or sequentially.
- (e) Genetic testing of the woman who gave birth is not a condition precedent to testing the child and the individual whose genetic paternity is being determined. If the woman who gave birth is unavailable or declines to submit to genetic testing, the court may order the testing of the child and every individual whose genetic paternity is being adjudicated.
 - (f) An order for genetic testing is enforceable by contempt.
- (g) In a proceeding to adjudicate the parentage of a child having a presumed parent or to challenge an acknowledgment of paternity under Section 310, a court may deny a motion seeking genetic testing of the mother, the child, or the presumed parent or acknowledged father based on consideration of the factors listed in Section 612, as well as the extent to which the passage of time reduces the chances of establishing the parentage of another person and a child-support obligation in favor of the child. Denial of a motion seeking an order for genetic testing must be based on clear and convincing evidence.

Reporter's Comment

1. AUTHORITY TO ORDER AND AUTHORITY TO DENY GENETIC TESTING

Articles 5 and 6 of the 2002 UPA contain a number of provisions that are interrelated. Section 502 addresses the circumstances under which a court can order genetic testing. Former Section 608 addresses the circumstances under which a court can deny a request for genetic testing. Having the provisions in separate Articles may create confusion. This is particularly true in the states that adopt only Article 5, but not Article 6, or vice versa. Because the concepts are so related, this draft includes both concepts in the same Section – Section 502.

2. NEW SUBSECTIONS 502(e) AND 502(f)

This draft includes two additional new subsections to Section 502 - 502(e) and 502(f). The text for these two new subsections was taken from former Section 622. The content in new Sections 502(e) and 502(f) is closely connected to the substance of Article 5, and particularly to Section 502. The Reporter is of the opinion that this content is more appropriately included here, in Section 502.

SECTION 503. REQUIREMENTS FOR GENETIC TESTING.

- (a) Genetic testing must be of a type reasonably relied upon by experts in the field of genetic testing and performed in a testing laboratory accredited by:
- (1) AABB, formerly known as the American Association of Blood Banks, or a successor to its functions; or
 - (2) an accrediting body designated by the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services.

 - (b) A specimen used in genetic testing may consist of one or more samples, or a combination of samples, of blood, buccal cells, bone, hair, or other body tissue or fluid. The specimen used in the testing need not be of the same kind for each individual undergoing genetic testing.
 - (c) Based on the ethnic or racial group of an individual, the testing laboratory shall determine the databases from which to select frequencies for use in calculation of the probability of paternity. If there is disagreement as to the testing laboratory's choice, the following rules

1	apply:
2	(1) The individual objecting may require the testing laboratory, within 30 days
3	after receipt of the report of the test, to recalculate the probability of genetic paternity using an
4	ethnic or racial group different from that used by the laboratory.
5	(2) The individual objecting to the testing laboratory's initial choice shall:
6	(A) if the frequencies are not available to the testing laboratory for the
7	ethnic or racial group requested, provide the requested frequencies compiled in a manner
8	recognized by accrediting bodies; or
9	(B) engage another testing laboratory to perform the calculations.
10	(3) The testing laboratory may use its own statistical estimate if there is a question
11	regarding which ethnic or racial group is appropriate. If available, the testing laboratory shall
12	calculate the frequencies using statistics for any other ethnic or racial group requested.
13	(d) If, after recalculation using a different ethnic or racial group, genetic testing does not
14	rebuttably identify a man as the genetic father of a child under Section 505, an individual who
15	has been tested may be required to submit to additional genetic testing.
16 17	Reporter's Comment
17 18 19 20 21 22 23	Section 502(a)(1) was revised because the listed entity now uses a different name. Section 502(a)(2) has been deleted because the American Society for Histocompatibility and Immunogenetics is no longer accrediting laboratories for parentage testing. New Section 502(a)(2)/former Section 502(a)(3) has been revised based on feedback from the federal Office of Child Support Enforcement.
24	SECTION 504. REPORT OF GENETIC TESTING.
25	(a) A report of genetic testing must be in a record and signed under penalty of perjury by
26	a designee of the testing laboratory. A report made under the requirements of this [article] is self-
27	authenticating.

1	(b) Documentation from the testing laboratory of the following information is sufficient
2	to establish a reliable chain of custody that allows the results of genetic testing to be admissible
3	without testimony:
4	(1) the names and photographs of the individuals whose specimens have been
5	taken;
6	(2) the names of the individuals who collected the specimens;
7	(3) the places and dates the specimens were collected;
8	(4) the names of the individuals who received the specimens in the testing
9	laboratory; and
10	(5) the dates the specimens were received.
11	SECTION 505. GENETIC TESTING RESULTS; CHALLENGE TO RESULTS.
12	(a) Subject to challenge under subsection (b), a man is identified as the genetic father of a
13	child under this [act] if the genetic testing complies with this [article] and the results disclose
14	that:
15	(1) the man has at least a 99 percent probability of genetic paternity, using a prior
16	probability of 0.50, as calculated by using the combined paternity index obtained in the testing;
17	and
18	(2) a combined paternity index of at least 100 to 1.
19	(b) A man identified under subsection (a) as the genetic father of the child may challenge
20	the genetic testing results only by other genetic testing satisfying the requirements of this
21	[article] which:
22	(1) excludes the man as a genetic father of the child; or
23	(2) identifies another man as the possible genetic father of the child.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in Section 510, if more than one man is identified by genetic testing as the possible genetic father of the child, the court shall order them to submit to further genetic testing to identify the genetic father. Reporter's Comment The references to "rebut" and "rebuttal" in this Section have been removed because those terms create confusion in this context. "Rebut" and "rebuttal" are typically used to refer to rebuttals of presumptions of parentage. This section, by contrast, deals with attempts to challenge a factual finding of genetic parentage. A person identified as a genetic parent may or may not be determined to be a legal parent. Using a different word seems appropriate and helps avoid confusion. At the in-person drafting meeting, the Drafting Committee noted that it might be helpful to include an official comment clarifying that this section deals only with challenges to the factual finding of genetic parentage; this section does not address legal parentage. SECTION 506. COSTS OF GENETIC TESTING. (a) Subject to assessment of costs under [Article] 6, the cost of initial genetic testing must be advanced: (1) by a support-enforcement agency in a proceeding in which the supportenforcement agency is providing services; (2) by the individual who made the request; (3) as agreed by the parties; or (4) as ordered by the court. (b) In cases in which the cost is advanced by the support-enforcement agency, the agency may seek reimbursement from a man who is identified as the genetic father. Reporter's Comment The word "rebuttably" has been removed from Section 506(b) because it is unnecessary. Section 505 sets out how one can challenge a factual finding of genetic parentage. SECTION 507. ADDITIONAL GENETIC TESTING. The court or the support-enforcement agency shall order additional genetic testing upon the request of a party who contests the result of the original testing. If the previous genetic testing identified a man as the genetic father of the child under Section 505, the court or agency may not order additional testing unless the party provides advance payment for the testing.

SECTION 508. GENETIC TESTING WHEN SPECIMENS NOT AVAILABLE.
(a) Subject to subsection (b), if a genetic-testing specimen is not available from a man who may be the genetic father of a child, for good cause and under circumstances the court considers to be just, the court may order the following individuals to submit specimens for genetic testing:
(1) the parents of the man;
(2) siblings of the man;
(3) other children of the man and their mothers; and
(4) other relatives of the man necessary to complete genetic testing.
(b) Issuance of an order under this section requires a finding that a need for genetic testing outweighs the legitimate interests of the individual sought to be tested.
SECTION 509. DECEASED INDIVIDUAL. For good cause shown, the court may order genetic testing of a deceased individual.
SECTION 510. IDENTICAL BROTHERS.
(a) The court may order genetic testing of a brother of a man identified as the genetic father of a child if the man is reasonably believed to have an identical brother and evidence suggests that the brother may be the genetic father of the child.
(b) If each brother satisfies the requirements as the identified genetic father of the child under Section 505 without consideration of another identical brother being identified as the genetic father of the child, the court may rely on nongenetic evidence to adjudicate which brother is the genetic father of the child.

Reporter's Comment

There was a discussion at the in-person drafting meeting about the phrase "commonly believed." The Drafting Committee concluded that the concept should be retained to cover situations where the individuals are not identical twins, but many believe them to be identical twins. This draft, however, replaces the word "commonly" with "reasonably." "Reasonably" continues to capture the concept, but is clearer.

SECTION 511. CONFIDENTIALITY OF GENETIC TESTING.

- (a) Release of the report of genetic testing for parentage is controlled by [applicable state law].
- (b) An individual who intentionally releases an identifiable specimen of another individual for any purpose other than that relevant to the proceeding regarding parentage without a court order or the written permission of the individual who furnished the specimen commits a [appropriate level misdemeanor].

SECTION 602. STANDING TO MAINTAIN PROCEEDING.

- 8 [(a) Proceedings to adjudicate the parentage of children born pursuant to an enforceable
- 9 surrogacy agreement are governed by [Article] 8.]
- 10 (b) [Except as otherwise provided in subsection (a), |subject to [Article] 3 and Sections
- 11 607 and 608, a proceeding to adjudicate parentage may be maintained by:
- 12 (1) the child;
- 13 (2) the woman who gave birth to the child unless her parental rights have been
- terminated[or she is a surrogate under [Article] 8];
- 15 (3) an individual who is a parent under this act;
- 16 (4) an individual whose parentage of the child is to be adjudicated, except as
- 17 otherwise provided in subsection (c);
 - (5) the support-enforcement agency [or other governmental agency authorized by

1	other law];
2	(6) an authorized adoption agency or licensed child-placing agency; or
3	(7) a representative authorized by law to act for an individual who would
4	otherwise be entitled to maintain a proceeding but who is deceased, incapacitated, or a minor.
5	(c) If the proceeding is filed by an individual who asserts parentage under Section 205,
6	that individual must establish standing to maintain the action in accordance with the following.
7	(1) An individual seeking to be adjudicated to be a parent under Section 205 shall
8	file with the initial pleadings an affidavit alleging under oath specific facts to support the
9	existence of a de facto parent relationship with the child as set forth in Section 205. The
10	pleadings and affidavit must be served upon all parents and legal guardians of the child and any
11	other party to the proceeding.
12	(2) An adverse party, parent, or legal guardian who files a pleading in response to
13	the pleadings described in Subsection (c)(1) shall also file an affidavit in response, serving all
14	parties to the proceeding with a copy.
15	(3) The court shall determine on the basis of the pleadings and affidavits under
16	Subsections (c)(1) and (c)(2) whether the individual seeking to be adjudicated a de facto parent
17	has presented prima facie evidence of the requirements set forth in Section 205. The court may,
18	in its sole discretion, if necessary and on an expedited basis, hold a hearing to determine disputed
19	facts that are necessary and material to the issue of standing.
20	(4) If the court determines that the individual has presented prima facie evidence
21	of the requirements set forth in Section 205, the individual has standing to maintain the
22	proceeding.
23	Reporter's Comment

1	This draft includes a heightened standing standard that must be met where the action is
2	brought by an individual claiming to be a de facto parentage. This provision is premised on a
3	similar provision in Maine's newly enacted Parentage Act. As I understand it, this provision was
4 5	added to allay the concerns of some people that permitting actions by de facto parents might subject parents to unwarranted and unjustified litigation. This ensures that the action will not
6	proceed unless it appears that the person has a strong claim to being a de facto parent.
7	proceed unless it appears that the person has a strong erain to being a de facto parent.
8	It is important to note that the Delaware Parentage Act does not include any similar
9	special standing requirements for individuals who claim de facto parentage.
10
11	As drafted, no other individuals are required to fulfill a heightened standing requirement
12	to proceed.
13
14 15	If we decide to include this heightened pleading standard, we may want to clarify in the comment that this heightened pleading standard does not apply if the person initiating the action
16	to declare an individual to be a de facto parent is an existing legal parent of the child.
17	to declare an individual to be a de facto parent is an existing legal parent of the child.
10	CECTION (AA. DADEVECTO DE CEPTENIA
18	SECTION 603. PARTIES TO PROCEEDING.
19	[(a) Proceedings to adjudicate the parentage of children born pursuant to an enforceable
20	surrogacy agreement are governed by [Article] 8.]
21	(b) [Except as provided in subsection (a),]the following individuals must be provided
22	notice of and must be joined as parties to a proceeding to adjudicate parentage:
23	(1) a woman who gave birth unless her parental rights have been terminated[or
24	she is a surrogate under [Article] 8];
25	(2) an individual who is a parent under this act;
26	(3) any presumed, acknowledged, or adjudicated parents; and
27	(4) an individual whose parentage of the child is to be adjudicated.
28	(c) If an individual who is required to be joined under subsection (b) cannot be joined, the
29	action must proceed among the existing parties.
30	Reporter's Comment
31
32 33	This provision is intended to ensure that steps are taken to join all persons with a claim to parentage regarding a particular child in a single action. Without the requirement of joinder, the rights of any absent individual with a claim to parentage could be indirectly affected. Take, for example, a situation where two men are presumed parents, one because he was married to the child's mother and one because he had held the child out as his own for the first two years of the child's life. If the UPA did not require the court to join all parties with a claim to parentage, the husband may not have a right to be notified of the action and his rights could be negatively affected even though he did not have an opportunity to present his claims to the court. Indeed, Section 621(d) provides that, "[e]xcept as otherwise provided in subsection (b), a determination of parentage may be a defense in a subsequent proceeding seeking to adjudicate parentage by an individual who was not a party to the earlier proceeding." (This subsection was taken verbatim from former Section 637(d)).

While a goal of the revised Section 603 is to ensure that steps are taken to include all parties with a potential claim to parentage in a proceeding to adjudicate parentage, another goal of the revised Section is to ensure that the proceeding could go forward even if such a party declines to participate in the proceeding. Subsection (c), seeks to achieve this goal. Subsection (c) is modeled on Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 19. Although state court parentage actions are not governed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this new Section is consistent with the spirit of FRCP 19.

SECTION 604. PERSONAL JURISDICTION.

- (a) An individual may not be adjudicated to be a parent unless the court has personal jurisdiction over the individual.
- (b) A court of this state having jurisdiction to adjudicate parentage may exercise personal jurisdiction over a nonresident individual, or the guardian or conservator of the individual, if the conditions prescribed in [Section 201 of the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act] are fulfilled.
- (c) Lack of jurisdiction over one individual does not preclude the court from making an adjudication of parentage binding on another individual over whom the court has personal jurisdiction.
- SECTION 605. VENUE. Venue for a proceeding to adjudicate parentage is in the 30 [county] of this state in which:
 - (1) the child resides or is found;
- 32 (2) the [respondent] resides or is found if the child does not reside in this state; or
- 33 (3) a proceeding for probate or administration of the presumed parent or alleged father's

1	estate has been commenced.
2	PART 2
3	SPECIAL RULES FOR PROCEEDING TO ADJUDICATE PARENTAGE
4	SECTION 606. NO STATUTE OF LIMITATION: CHILD HAVING NO
5	PRESUMED, ACKNOWLEDGED, OR ADJUDICATED PARENT OTHER THAN THE
6	WOMAN WHO GAVE BIRTH. A proceeding to adjudicate the parentage of a child having no
7	presumed, acknowledged, or adjudicated parent other than the woman who gave birth may be
8	commenced at any time. Such a proceeding may be commenced even after the child becomes an
9	adult, but only if the child initiates the proceeding.
10	Reporter's Comment
11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	Former subsection (2) is no longer needed and, therefore, has been struck. Former subsection (2) provided that a proceeding to adjudicate parentage could be maintained at any time if "an earlier proceeding to adjudicate paternity has been dismissed based on the application of a statute of limitation then in effect." In the past, some states had very short statute of limitations periods for filing an action to establish parentage. See , e.g. , Clark v. Jeter , 486 U.S. 456 (1988) (holding unconstitutional a six-year statute of limitations period). Since 1984, however, federal law has required all states to have a statute of limitation period that continues until at least the child's eighteenth birthday. 42 U.S.C. § 666(a)(5)(A)(i). SECTION 607. STATUTE OF LIMITATION: CHILD HAVING PRESUMED
21	PARENT.
22	(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), a proceeding to challenge a presumed
23	parent's parentage must be commenced not later than two years after the birth of the child.
24	(b) A proceeding to challenge the parent-child relationship between a child and the

27	cohabit during the probable time of conception; and
28	(2) the presumed parent never resided with the child and never openly held out the

There was a discussion at the in-person drafting meeting about whether the statute of limitations period should also apply to a child who had previously been represented by counsel in a prior action to adjudicate parentage. If the Drafting Committee decides that it does want to include a different rule for the previously represented child, subsection (b) will need to be revised accordingly.

SECTION 609. GENERAL RULES REGARDING ADMISSIBILITY OF

RESULTS OF GENETIC TESTING.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), a record of a genetic-testing expert is admissible as evidence of the truth of the facts asserted in the report unless a party objects to its admission within [14] days after its receipt by the objecting party and cites specific grounds for

- exclusion. The admissibility of the report is not affected by whether the testing was performed:
- (1) voluntarily or pursuant to an order of the court or a support-enforcement agency; or
 - (2) before or after the commencement of the proceeding.
- (b) A party objecting to the results of genetic testing may call one or more genetic-testing experts to testify in person or by telephone, videoconference, deposition, or another method approved by the court. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the party offering the testimony bears the expense for the expert testifying.
- (c) Genetic testing is not admissible for the purpose of:
- 24 (1) disestablishing the parentage of an individual who is a parent under [Article]
- 25 7[or [Article] 8]; or
- 26 (2) establishing the parentage of an individual who is a donor.

Reporter's Comment

1. PLACEMENT OF THE PROVISION

This section has been moved up. It was previously included as Section 621. The Reporter believes the content is better placed here, along with the other substantive rules regarding adjudication of parentage. What had been addressed in former Section 621(c) is now addressed in new Section 612 (adjudicating parentage in cases involving competing claims to parentage).

Former Section 621(d) has been moved into new Section 619/former Section 636 (Order Adjudicating Parentage). Section 619/former Section 636 addresses other costs and expenses, including "fees for genetic testing, other costs, and necessary travel and other reasonable expenses incurred in a proceeding under this [article]." Thus, it seems like a better placement for this content.

2. GENETIC TESTING AND INTENDED PARENTS

The new Section 609(c) is similar to the new Section 501(c); both new provisions make clear that genetic testing cannot be used to challenge the parentage of an individual who is a parent of a child born through assisted reproductive technology.

SECTION 610. ADJUDICATING PARENTAGE FOR AN INDIVIDUAL WHO IS

A PARENT UNDER [ARTICLE] 7. An individual who is a parent under [Article] 7 can bring a proceeding to adjudicate parentage. Upon a finding that the individual is a parent under [Article] 7, the court shall issue an order declaring that individual to be a parent to the child.

Reporter's Comment

This new section specifically authorizes the filing of a proceeding to adjudicate the parentage of individuals who are intended parents under Article 7. The rules regarding adjudications of parentage for individuals who are parents under Article 8 are set forth in Article 8.

SECTION 611. ADJUDICATING PARENTAGE OF AN ALLEGED GENETIC

PARENT FOR A CHILD WITH NO PRESUMED PARENT. The following rules apply in a proceeding to adjudicate the parentage of an individual who is alleged to be a child's genetic parent and who is not a donor, where the child has no presumed, acknowledged, or adjudicated

37 parent and no parent under [Article] 7 [or [Article] 8], other than the woman who gave birth.

1	(1) The court shall issue an order declaring the individual to be the child's parent if:
2	(A) the individual is identified as the genetic parent of the child under Section 505
3	and that identification is not successfully challenged under Section 505; or
4	(B) the individual admits parentage by filing a pleading to that effect or by
5	admitting parentage under penalty of perjury when making an appearance or during a hearing
6	and the court finds that there is no reason to question the admission.
7	(2) If the individual whose genetic parentage is being determined declines to submit to
8	genetic testing ordered by the court, the court may adjudicate parentage contrary to the position
9	of the individual.
10	(3) If the individual whose genetic parentage is being determined is in default after
11	service of process and is found by the court to be the parent of the child, the court shall issue an
12	order adjudicating the individual to be the child's parent.
13	(4) If the court finds that the genetic testing neither identifies nor excludes the individual
14	as the genetic parent of the child, the court may not dismiss the proceeding. In that event, the
15	results of genetic testing, and other evidence, are admissible to adjudicate the issue of parentage.
16 17	Reporter's Comment
18 19 20 21 22 23	While this is a new Section, most of the content is taken from various provisions of the 2002 UPA. For example, the content of subsection (1)(A) is taken from former Section 631; the content of subsection (1)(B) is taken from former Section 623; the content of subsection (2) is taken from former Section 622; the content of subsection (3) is taken from former Section 634; and the content of subsection (4) is taken from former Section 631.
24 25 26 27	Given that these rules all concern the adjudication of parentage for a child with no presumed, adjudicated, or acknowledged parent other than the woman who gave birth, it seemed advisable to put all of the pieces into a single Section.

SECTION 612. ADJUDICATING PARENTAGE OF A CHILD WITH ONE OR MORE PRESUMED PARENTS. The following rules apply in a proceeding to adjudicate the parentage of a child where there is one or more presumed parents and where the child has no adjudicated or acknowledged parent and no parent under [Article] 7 [or [Article] 8], other than the woman who gave birth.
(1) Except as otherwise provided in Section 607, in a proceeding where there is an individual, other than a donor, who is both a presumed parent and a genetic parent, and there is no other individual with a claim to parentage other than the woman who gave birth, the court shall issue an order declaring the individual to be the child's parent.
(2) Except as otherwise provided in Section 607, in a proceeding where there is an individual who is a presumed parent but who is not a genetic parent, and there is no other individual with a claim to parentage other than the woman who gave birth, the court shall issue an order declaring the individual to be the child's parent unless:
(A) the presumed parent and the woman who gave birth to the child did not cohabit during the probable time of conception; and
(B) the presumed parent never resided with the child and never openly held out the child as his or her own.
(3) IIn a proceeding where more than one individual has a claim to parentage under this [act], not including the woman who gave birth, the court shall adjudicate parentage pursuant to the best interests of the child, based on the following factors:
(A) the age of the child;
(B) the length of time during which the presumed or genetic parents have assumed the role of parent of the child;

1	(C) the nature of the relationship between the child and the presumed or genetic
2	parents;
3	(D) the harm to the child if the relationship between the child and any presumed
4	or genetic parents is not recognized;
5	(E) the facts surrounding the individual's discovery that he the individual might
6	not be the genetic parent;
7	(F) the length of time between the proceeding to adjudicate parentage and the
8	time that the individual was placed on notice that he the individual might not be the genetic
9	parent; and
10	(G) other equitable factors arising from the disruption of the relationship between
11	the child and a presumed or genetic parent or the chance of other harm to the child.
12	(4) In an appropriate action, a court may find that more than two individuals with a claim
13	to parentage under this [act] are parents if the court finds that recognizing only two parents
14	would be detrimental to the child. In determining detriment to the child, the court shall consider
15	all relevant factors, including, but not limited to, the harm of removing the child from a stable
16	placement with an individual who has fulfilled the child's physical needs and the child's
17	psychological needs for care and affection, and who has assumed that role for a substantial
18	period of time. A finding of detriment to the child does not require a finding of unfitness of any
19	of the parents or individuals with a claim to parentage.
20	Reporter's Comment
21 22 23 24 25	Unlike the 1973 UPA, the 2002 UPA contained no provision explaining how a court should adjudicate parentage in cases involving competing claims to parentage. This new Section seeks to provide that guidance. The factors included in this new Section are largely taken from former Section 608, which addressed when a court could deny a request for genetic testing.
26	This new section uses the phrase "individual with a claim to parentage." This phrase is now included in the definition section (Section 102). 1 2 3 Newly added subsection (4) allows a court to conclude that a child has more than two 4 parents. It does, however, establish a high threshold that must be met before that conclusion can 5 be reached. This provision is based on Cal. Fam. Code Section 7612(c). 6 7 Official Comment 8 9 In a proceeding involving application of subsection (3), the court may want to consider 10 appointing an attorney or guardian ad litem to represent the child. 11 12 PART 3 13 HEARINGS AND ADJUDICATION 14 SECTION 613. TEMPORARY ORDER. 15 (a) In a proceeding under this [article], the court may issue a temporary order for support 16 of a child if the order is appropriate and the individual ordered to pay support is: 17 (1) a presumed parent of the child; 18 (2) petitioning to have his or her parentage adjudicated; 19 (3) identified as the genetic father through genetic testing under Section 505; 20 (4) an alleged father who has declined to submit to genetic testing; 21 (5) shown by clear and convincing evidence to be the parent of the child; 22 (6) the woman who gave birth to the child, unless her parental rights have been 23 terminated[or she is a surrogate under [Article] 8]; or 24 (7) a parent to the child under this act. 25 (b) A temporary order may include provisions for custody and visitation as provided by other law of this state. 26 SECTION 614. JOINDER OF PROCEEDINGS. 27 28 (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), a proceeding to adjudicate parentage 29 may be joined with a proceeding for adoption, termination of parental rights, child custody or

14	Reporter's Comment
15 16 17 18 19 20	I replaced the text of former Section 611 with language based on the California provision. Cal. Fam. Code § 7633. The text of former Section 611 provided that a proceeding to determine parentage could not be concluded until after the birth of the child. In some instances, however, it may be very helpful for the parties to have a determination of parentage prior to birth, even if the order is not effective until after birth. We previously considered this language at our last inperson meeting, but we did not make a decision about it.

 At the prior in-person drafting meeting, the Drafting Committee also tabled a discussion about whether final pre-birth orders should be authorized under Article 7 with respect to children born through non-surrogacy forms of assisted reproduction. The Drafting Committee never returned to the issue, and therefore we never made a decision about it. If the Drafting Committee decides to permit pre-birth orders under Article 7, this provision will need to be amended accordingly.

SECTION 616. CHILD AS PARTY; REPRESENTATION.

(a) A minor child is a permissible party, but is not a necessary party to a proceeding

2	(b) The court shall appoint an [attorney, guardian ad litem, or similar personnel] to

11	Other papers and records are available only with the consent of the parties or on order of the

2	(c) The court may not assess fees, costs, or expenses against the support-enforcement
3	agency of this state or another state, except as provided by other law.
4	(d) Copies of bills for genetic testing and for prenatal and postnatal health care for the
5	mother and child which are furnished to the adverse party not less than 10 days before the date of
6	a hearing are admissible to establish:
7	(1) the amount of the charges billed; and
8	(2) that the charges were reasonable, necessary, and customary.
9	(e) On request of a party and for good cause shown, the court may order that the name of
0	the child be changed.
1	(f) If the order of the court is at variance with the child's birth certificate, the court shall
2	order [agency maintaining birth records] to issue an amended birth registration.
3	Reporter's Comment
4 5 6	Much of the content of this section is taken from former Section 636. The Committee may want to add an Official Comment about inserting citations to other law of the state in subsection (a), if such law or court rules provide alternative means for identifying the child.
.7 .8	SECTION 621. BINDING EFFECT OF DETERMINATION OF PARENTAGE.
9	(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), a determination of parentage is
20	binding on:
21	(1) all signatories to an acknowledgement of paternity or denial of parentage as
22	provided in [Article] 3; and
23	(2) all parties to an adjudication by a court acting under circumstances that satisfy
24	the jurisdictional requirements of [Section 201 of the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act].
25	(b) A child is not bound by a determination of parentage under this [act] unless:

1	(1) the determination was based on an unrescinded acknowledgment of paternity
2	and the acknowledgment is consistent with the results of genetic testing;
3	(2) except for determinations of parentage under [Article] 7 [or [Article] 8], the
4	adjudication of parentage was based on a finding consistent with the results of genetic testing
5	and the consistency is declared in the determination or is otherwise shown; or
6	(3) the child was a party or was represented in the proceeding determining
7	parentage by an [attorney, guardian ad litem, or similar personnel].
8	(c) In a proceeding to dissolve a marriage, the court is deemed to have made an
9	adjudication of the parentage of a child if the court acts under circumstances that satisfy the
10	jurisdictional requirements of [Section 201 of the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act], and
11	the final order:
12	(1) expressly identifies a child as a "child of the marriage," "issue of the 13	marriage," or similar words indicating that both spouses are parents of the child; or
14	(2) provides for support of the child by a spouse unless that spouse's parentage is
15	specifically disclaimed in the order.
16	(d) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), a determination of parentage may be a
17	defense in a subsequent proceeding seeking to adjudicate parentage by an individual who was
18	not a party to the earlier proceeding.
19	(e) A party to an adjudication of parentage may challenge the adjudication only under law
20	of this state relating to appeal, vacation of judgments, or other judicial review.
21	Reporter's Comment
22 23 24	There was a discussion at the in-person drafting meeting about whether and under what circumstances a child should be bound by a prior determination of parentage.

SURROGACY AGREEMENTS

Reporter's Comment

The 2017 UPA updates the surrogacy provisions to reflect developments in that area. The 2002 UPA includes a bracketed Article 8 that authorized surrogacy agreements. States have been particularly slow to enact Article 8 of the 2002 UPA. Eleven (11) states adopted versions of the 2002 UPA. Of these eleven (11) states, however, only two (2) – Texas and Utah – enacted the surrogacy provisions based on Article 8 of the 2002 UPA. At least five (5) of the eleven (11) states that enacted the 2002 UPA enacted surrogacy provisions that are not premised on the 2002 UPA. These states include: Delaware (permitting) (enacted 2013); Illinois (permitting) (enacted 2004); Maine (permitting) (enacted 2015); North Dakota (banning) (enacted 2005); and Washington (banning compensated) (enacted 1989).

The fact that very few states enacted Article 8 is likely the result of a confluence of factors. One likely factor is the controversial nature of surrogacy itself. But given that four of the states that enacted the 2002 UPA enacted provisions permitting surrogacy, but did not adopt Article 8 of the UPA, another factor appears to be a lack of enthusiasm for the substance of the provisions themselves. Accordingly, the 2017 UPA updates the surrogacy provisions to make them more consistent with current surrogacy practice.

As was true of the 2002 UPA, Article 8 of the 2017 UPA regulates and permits both genetic (often referred to as "traditional") and gestational surrogacy agreements. But the 2017 UPA differs in the way that it regulates these two types of surrogacy agreements. The 2002 UPA set forth a single set of requirements that applied equally to genetic and gestational surrogacy agreements. While the 2017 UPA continues to permit both types of surrogacy, the 2017 UPA imposes additional safeguards or requirements on genetic surrogacy agreements. This differentiation between genetic and gestational surrogacy is intended to reflect both the factual differences between the two types of surrogacy as well as the reality that policy makers view these two forms of surrogacy as being quite different. Of the states that permit surrogacy, almost all of them permit only gestational surrogacy agreements. 1 2 3 While the 2017 UPA adds additional requirements that apply only to genetic surrogacy 4 agreements, it simultaneously liberalizes the rules governing gestational surrogacy agreements. The changes to the rules governing gestational surrogacy agreements is intended to make these 5 6 rules more consistent with current practice and law. 7 8 Sections 801 – 806 establish the rules that apply to both types of surrogacy agreements. 9 Sections 807 – 810 include rules that apply only to gestational surrogacy agreements. Sections 10 811 - 814 include rules that apply only to genetic surrogacy agreements. 11 12 PART 1 13 GENERAL REQUIREMENTS 14 SECTION 801. ELIGIBILITY TO ENTER A GESTATIONAL OR GENETIC 15 SURROGACY AGREEMENT. 16 17 (a) In order to execute an agreement to act as a gestational or a genetic surrogate, a 18 woman must: (1) be at least 21 years of age; 19 20 (2) have previously given birth to at least one child; (3) complete a medical evaluation that includes a mental health consultation; and 21 22 (4) have independent legal representation of her own choosing and paid for by the 23 intended parent or parents regarding the terms of the surrogacy agreement and the potential legal 24 consequences of the surrogacy agreement. 25 (b) In order to execute a surrogacy agreement, the intended parent or parents, whether 26 genetically related to the child or not, must: 27 (1) be at least 21 years of age; 28 (2) complete a mental health consultation; and (3) have independent legal representation regarding the terms of the surrogacy 29

Reporter's Comment

There was a discussion at the in-person drafting meeting about whether the intended parents should be required to pay for the surrogate's counsel. A number of states, including Maine, require the intended parents to pay for the surrogate's counsel. See, e.g., ME. STAT., tit. § 1931(1)(D) (requiring the surrogate to have "had independent legal representation of her own choosing and paid for by the intended parent or parents regarding the terms of the gestational carrier agreement and have been advised of the potential legal consequences of the gestational carrier agreement"). A number of other states do not require the intended parents to pay for the surrogate's counsel. See, e.g., CAL. FAM. CODE § 7962(b) ("Prior to executing the written assisted reproduction agreement for gestational carriers, a surrogate and the intended parent or intended parents shall be represented by separate independent licensed attorneys of their choosing.").

SECTION 802. REQUIREMENTS OF A GESTATIONAL OR GENETIC

SURROGACY AGREEMENT: PROCESS. Tithe surrogacy agreement must be executed in compliance with consistent with all of the following conditions:

- (1) At least one of the parties must be a resident of the state, or, if no party is a resident of the state, at least one of the medical procedures pursuant to the agreement must occur in this state.
- (2) The surrogate and the intended parent or parents must meet the requirements of Section 801.
- (3) The intended parent or parents, the surrogate, and the surrogate's spouse, if any, must be parties to the surrogacy agreement.
 - (4) The agreement must be in writing a record and signed by all parties.
- 26 (5) The surrogate and each intended parent must acknowledge in a record of having sign 27 a written acknowledgment of having received a copy of the agreement.
 - (6) The signature of each party to the agreement must be notarized, acknowledged or attested by a person authorized to take oaths in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction

Commented [JDP44]: Rubottom (FL): substantial compliance should be OK. CJ: This issue is addressed later, in Section 810.

Commented [CJ45]: Edit from Behr (AK).

Commented [CJ46]: Behr (AK) suggests replacing "writing" with "a record."

Commented [CJ47]: Langrock (VT) noted we should make sure that this is not inconsistent with the fed esign rules.

Commented [JDP48]: Miller (OK): why "written"? Just use "in a record".

Commented [CJ49]: Behr (AK) suggests amending the second half of the sentence as follows: "must sign an acknowledgement in a record of having received a record of the agreement."

1	where it is executed.
2	(7) The surrogate and the intended parent or parents must be represented by independent
3	legal counsel in all matters concerning the agreement, and each counsel shall be identified in the
4	surrogacy agreement.
5	(8) The agreement must be executed before any medical procedures related to the
6	surrogacy agreement other than the medical evaluations required by Section 801.
7	SECTION 803. REQUIREMENTS OF A GESTATIONAL OR GENETIC
8	SURROGACY AGREEMENT: CONTENT.
9	(a) The content of the surrogacy agreement must comply with all of the following
10	requirements:
11	(1) The prospective surrogate agrees to attempt to become pregnant by means of
12	assisted reproduction;
13	(2) The prospective surrogate and her spouse, if any, have no claim to parentage
14	to any resulting child (ren);
15	(3) The surrogate's spouse, if any, must acknowledge and agree to abide by the
16	obligations imposed on the surrogate by the terms of the surrogacyte agreement;
17	(4) The intended parent or parents will be the exclusive parent or parents of any
18	resulting $child$ (\underline{ren}) immediately upon birth regardless of the number, gender, or mental or
19	physical condition of the resulting child(ren); and
20	(5) The intended parents will assume responsibility for the financial support of
21	any resulting child(ren) immediately upon the birth regardless of the number, gender, or mental
22	or physical condition of the resulting child(ren);

Commented [JDP50]: Davies (MN): what about multiple children?

(6) The agreement must include information disclosing how the intended parents

2	newborns. If health-care coverage is used to cover the medical expenses, the disclosure shall
3	include a review of the health care policy provisions related to coverage for surrogate pregnancy.
4	including any possibleility liability of the surrogate, third-party liability liens or other insurance
5	coverage, and any notice requirements that could affect coverage or liability of the surrogate;
6	(7) The agreement must permit the surrogate to use the services of a health-care
7	provider of her choosing to provide her care during her pregnancy [subject to the intended parent
8	or parents' desired level of care]; and-
9	(8) The agreement must permit may not limit the right of the surrogate to make all

Commented [JDP51]: Berh (AK): what about travel expenses?

Commented [CJ52]: Behr (AK): "medical expenses" is too narrow. She suggests that the term needs to include, among other things, medically necessary travel, and psychological counseling.

Commented [JDP53]: Benton (TX): what is the policy purpose of the requirement? These are private parties.

Commented [JDP54]: Miller (OK) what is the relationship to (8) - must the policy cover costs of terminating a pregnancy?

(2) the [divorce, dissolution, or appropriate term] of the surrogate after the signing of the surrogacy agreement does not affect the validity of the surrogacy agreement.

Commented [CJ56]: Behr (AK) suggests adding: "or dissolution of marriage"

(b) Unless the surrogacy agreement expressly provides otherwise:

(1) The marriage of an intended parent after the signing of the surrogacy agreement does not affect the validity of a surrogacy agreement, the consent of the spouse of the intended parent is not required, and the spouse of the intended parent is not a parent of the resulting child or children by virtue of the surrogacy agreement; and

(2) The [divorce, dissolution, or appropriate term] of the intended parents after the signing of the surrogacy agreement does not affect the validity of a surrogacy agreement, and the intended parents are the parents of the resulting child or children.

SECTION 805. INSPECTION OF RECORDS. The petition and any other documents related to the surrogacy agreement filed in the office of the clerk of the court pursuant to this part shall may not be open to inspection by any person other than the parties to the proceeding, any resulting child, and their attorneys and [the relevant state agency], except upon written court order. A judge of the [court having jurisdiction] shall may not authorize anyone to inspect any documents related to the surrogacy agreement, except in exigent circumstances and where necessary. The petitioner may be required to pay the expense of preparing the copies of the documents to be inspected.

SECTION 806. EXCLUSIVE, CONTINUING JURISDICTION. During the period governed by the surrogacy agreement, a court that is conducting a proceeding under this [act] has exclusive, continuing jurisdiction of all matters arising out of a surrogacy agreement until the 90th day until 90 days after a child is born to the surrogate; provided, however, that nothing in this provision gives the court jurisdiction over a child custody or a child support action where such jurisdiction is not otherwise authorized.

Commented [CJ58]: Behr (AK) suggests replacing "shall" with "may"

Commented [CJ59]: Behr (AK) suggests replacing "shall" with "may"

Commented [CJ60]: Behr (AK).

Commented [CJ61]: CJ: I'm not sure if it should be "no later than then 90th day" or "no later than 90 days." Behr was not consistent. Here she seemed to suggest "90th day," but in section 813, she seemed to suggest the latter approach.

Commented [JDP62]: Benton (TX): Does this concept really work in this case? Borrowing from UCCJEA, but maybe it does not make sense. Must the surrogate remain in state?

CJ: Can she be required to remain in the state? Can she be compelled to return to the state?

2	SPECIAL RULES FOR GESTATIONAL SURROGACY AGREEMENTS
3	SECTION 807. TERMINATION OF A GESTATIONAL SURROGACY
4	AGREEMENT.
5	(a) A party to a gestational surrogacy agreement may withdraw consent to any medical
6	procedure and may terminate the gestational surrogacy agreement at any time before any embryo
7	transfer that results in a pregnancy by giving notice in a record written notice of termination to
8	all other parties. If the transfer does not result in a pregnancy, consent may be withdrawn any
9	time prior to any subsequent embryo transfer.
10	(b) Upon proper termination of the gestational surrogacy agreement under subsection (a),
11	the parties are released from all obligations recited in the agreement except that the intended
12	parent(s) or parents remain responsible for all expenses that are reimbursable under the
13	agreement incurred by the gestational surrogate through the date of termination. Unless the
14	agreement provides otherwise, the gestational surrogate is entitled to keep all payments she the
15	gestational surrogate has received and obtain all payments to which the gestational surrogate
16	is entitled. Neither a prospective gestational surrogate nor her spouse, if any, is liable to the

21	(a) The intended parent or parents are, by operation of law, the parent or parents of the
22	resulting child born through an enforceable gestational surrogacy agreement immediately upon
23	the birth of the resulting child.

Commented [CJ63]: Behr (AK) suggests replacing "writing notice of termination" with "notice in a record of termination"

Commented [JDP64]: Lebrun (ND): notice "in a record" – should not have to be written

Commented [CJ65]: Behr (AK) wonders if we could avoid having to use the phrase "parent or parents" by defining "parent" so that it includes both parents. If two individuals are intended to be the parents of the child. Then, maybe, we could just use "parent."

Commented [CJ66]: Behr (AK) suggests replacing "she" with "the [gestational] surrogate." CJ: I added gestational.

Commented [CJ67]: Behr (AK) suggests replacing "she" with "the [gestational] surrogate."

Commented [CJ68]: Behr (AK) suggests replacing "she" with "the [gestational] surrogate's"

Commented [JDP69]: Cannel (NJ): what if there is a mistake and the surrogate's husband is the biological child?

Commented [CJ70]: Behr (AK) suggests replacing "her" with "the [gestational] surrogate's." CJ: If implemented here, this sentence would be quite cumbersome: "Neither the gestational surrogate, nor the gestational surrogate's spouse, if any, nor the gestational surrogate's former spouse, if any, is the parent ..."

(b) Neither the gestational surrogate, nor her spouse, if any, nor her former spouse, if any,

1	is the parent of the resulting child born through an enforceable gestational surrogacy agreement.
2	(c) If the child is alleged to be the genetic child of the surrogate, the court shall order

14	commence a proceeding in the [appropriate court] to obtain an order:
15	(1) declaring that the intended parent or parents are the parent or parents of the
16	resulting child and ordering that parental rights and responsibilities vest exclusively in the

SPECIAL RULES FOR GENETIC SURROGACY AGREEMENTS SECTION 811. REQUIREMENTS OF PETITION TO VALIDATE A GENETIC SURROGACY AGREEMENT.

- (a) To be enforceable, a genetic surrogacy agreement must be validated by [the appropriate] court. The proceeding to validate the agreement must be commenced before any medical procedures related to the surrogacy agreement other than the medical evaluations required by Section 801 are undertaken.

SECTION 812. TERMINATION OF GENETIC SURROGACY AGREEMENT.

- (a) A party to a genetic surrogacy agreement may terminate the genetic surrogacy agreement as follows:
- (1) An intended parent who is a party to a genetic surrogacy agreement may withdraw consent to and may terminate the genetic surrogacy agreement at any time before the use of assisted reproduction that results in a pregnancy by giving notice of termination in a record giving written notice of termination to all other parties. The notice of termination must be notarized, acknowledged, or attested by a person authorized to take oaths in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction where it is executed.
- (2) A genetic surrogate who is a party to a genetic surrogacy agreement may withdraw consent to the genetic surrogacy agreement any time before 72 hours after the birth of the child. To withdraw consent, any time before 72 hours after the birth of the child, the genetic surrogate must execute a signed writing record of her intent to terminate the agreement. This notice record of termination must be notarized, acknowledged, or attested by a person authorized to take oaths in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction where it is executed, and delivered to the intended parent or parents any time before 72 hours after the birth of the child.

8	MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS
9	SECTION 1001. UNIFORMITY OF APPLICATION AND CONSTRUCTION. In
0	applying and construing this Uniform Act, consideration must be given to the need to promote
1	uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact it.
2	SECTION 1002. TRANSITIONAL PROVISION. This [act] applies to all pending
3	proceedings to adjudicate parentage commenced before its effective date with respect to issues
4	on which a judgment has not been entered.
5	[SECTION 1003. SEVERABILITY CLAUSE. If any provision of this [act] or its
6	application to any individual or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other
7	provisions or applications of this [act] which can be given effect without the invalid provision or
8	application, and to this end the provisions of this [act] are severable.]
19 20	Legislative Note: Include this section only if this state lacks a general severability statute or a decision by the highest court of this state stating a general rule of severability.
21 22	SECTION 1004. REPEALS: CONFORMING AMENDMENTS. The following
23	[acts] and parts of [acts] are repealed:
24	(1) [Uniform Act on Paternity, 1960]
25	(2) [Uniform Parentage Act, 1973]

Commented [CJ119]: Trost (TN) recommends replacing the end of this sentence with the following: "shall provide to the resulting child access only to medical history of the donor [the donor's medical history] from which the [donor's] identity cannot be determined."

Commented [CJ120]: Langrock (VT) asked about subpeona power, and more generally, about remedies under this Article. Lackrock expressed the position that all children should know their genetic history. Stowers (AK) disaggreed.

Commented [CJ121]: Burton (NM): did we get input from AMA about def of medical history? What about genetic siblings?

Commented [JDP122]: Stowers (AK): if the bank is not a hospital and goes out of business, who must keep the information?

Commented [CJ123]: Behr (AK).

Commented [CJ124]: CJ: I think this is what Behr (AK) is suggesting (that is, just placing the provision in brackets).

Commented [CJ125]: Behr (AK)

FEDERAL IV-D STATUTE RELATING TO PARENTAGE

42 U. S. C. § 666. Requirement of Statutorily Prescribed Procedures To Improve Effectiveness of Child Support Enforcement.

(a) Types of procedures required. In order to satisfy section 654(20)(A) of this title, each State must have in effect laws requiring the use of the following procedures, consistent with this section and with regulations of the Secretary, to increase the effectiveness of the program which the State administers under this part:

* * *

(5) Procedures concerning paternity establishment.

(A) Establishment process available from birth until age 18.

- (i) Procedures which permit the establishment of the paternity of a child at any time before the child attains 18 years of age.
- (ii) As of August 16, 1984, clause (i) shall also apply to a child for whom paternity has not been established or for whom a paternity action was brought but dismissed because a statute of limitations of less than 18 years was then in effect in the State.

(B) Procedures concerning genetic testing.

- (i) Genetic testing required in certain contested cases. Procedures under which the State is required, in a contested paternity case (unless otherwise barred by State law) to require the child and all other parties (other than individuals found under section 654(29) of this title to have good cause and other exceptions for refusing to cooperate) to submit to genetic tests upon the request of any such party, if the request is supported by a sworn statement by the party:
- (I) alleging paternity, and setting forth facts establishing a reasonable possibility of the requisite sexual contact between the parties; or
- (II) denying paternity, and setting forth facts establishing a reasonable possibility of the nonexistence of sexual contact between the parties.
- (ii) Other requirements. Procedures which require the State agency, in any case in which the agency orders genetic testing:
- (I) to pay costs of such tests, subject to recoupment (if the State so elects) from the alleged father if paternity is established; and
- (II) to obtain additional testing in any case if an original test result is contested, upon request and advance payment by the contestant.

(C) Voluntary paternity acknowledgment.

- (i) Simple civil process. Procedures for a simple civil process for voluntarily acknowledging paternity under which the State must provide that, before a mother and a putative father can sign an acknowledgment of paternity, the mother and the putative father must be given notice, orally or through the use of audio or video equipment and in writing, of the alternatives to, the legal consequences of, and the rights (including, if 1 parent is a minor, any rights afforded due to minority status) and responsibilities that arise from, signing the acknowledgment.
- (ii) Hospital-based program. Such procedures must include a hospital-based program for the voluntary acknowledgment of paternity focusing on the period immediately before or after the birth of a child.

1 (iii) Paternity establishment services.

or

- (I) State-offered services. Such procedures must require the State agency responsible for maintaining birth records to offer voluntary paternity establishment services.
 - (II) Regulations.
- (aa) Services offered by hospitals and birth record agencies. The Secretary shall prescribe regulations governing voluntary paternity establishment services offered by hospitals and birth record agencies.
- (bb) Services offered by other entities. The Secretary shall prescribe regulations specifying the types of other entities that may offer voluntary paternity establishment services, and governing the provision of such services, which shall include a requirement that such an entity must use the same notice provisions used by, use the same materials used by, provide the personnel providing such services with the same training provided by, and evaluate the provision of such services in the same manner as the provision of such services is evaluated by, voluntary paternity establishment programs of hospitals and birth record agencies.
- (iv) Use of paternity acknowledgment affidavit. Such procedures must require the State to develop and use an affidavit for the voluntary acknowledgment of paternity which includes the minimum requirements of the affidavit specified by the Secretary under section 652(a)(7) of this title for the voluntary acknowledgment of paternity, and to give full faith and credit to such an affidavit signed in any other State according to its procedures.

(D) Status of signed paternity acknowledgment.

- (i) Inclusion in birth records. Procedures under which the name of the father shall be included on the record of birth of the child of unmarried parents only if:
 - (I) the father and mother have signed a voluntary acknowledgment of paternity;
- (II) a court or an administrative agency of competent jurisdiction has issued an adjudication of paternity.
- Nothing in this clause shall preclude a State agency from obtaining an admission of paternity from the father for submission in a judicial or administrative proceeding, or prohibit the issuance of an order in a judicial or administrative proceeding which bases a legal finding of paternity on an admission of paternity by the father and any other additional showing required by State law.
- (ii) Legal finding of paternity. Procedures under which a signed voluntary acknowledgment of paternity is considered a legal finding of paternity, subject to the right of any signatory to rescind the acknowledgment within the earlier of:
 - (I) 60 days; or
- (II) the date of an administrative or judicial proceeding relating to the child (including a proceeding to establish a support order) in which the signatory is a party.
- (iii) Contest. Procedures under which, after the 60-day period referred to in clause (ii), a signed voluntary acknowledgment of paternity may be challenged in court only on the basis of fraud, duress, or material mistake of fact, with the burden of proof upon the challenger, and under which the legal responsibilities (including child support obligations) of any signatory arising from the acknowledgment may not be suspended during the challenge, except for good cause shown.

(E) Bar on acknowledgment ratification proceedings. Procedures under which judicial or administrative proceedings are not required or permitted to ratify an unchallenged acknowledgment of paternity.

(F) Admissibility of genetic testing results. Procedures:

1 2

- (i) requiring the admission into evidence, for purposes of establishing paternity, of the results of any genetic test that is:
- (I) of a type generally acknowledged as reliable by accreditation bodies designated by the Secretary; and
 - (II) performed by a laboratory approved by such an accreditation body;
- (ii) requiring an objection to genetic testing results to be made in writing not later than a specified number of days before any hearing at which the results may be introduced into evidence (or, at State option, not later than a specified number of days after receipt of the results); and
- (iii) making the test results admissible as evidence of paternity without the need for foundation testimony or other proof of authenticity or accuracy, unless objection is made.
- (G) Presumption of paternity in certain cases. Procedures which create a rebuttable or, at the option of the State, conclusive presumption of paternity upon genetic testing results indicating a threshold probability that the alleged father is the father of the child.
- (H) Default orders. Procedures requiring a default order to be entered in a paternity case upon a showing of service of process on the defendant and any additional showing required by State law.
- (I) No right to jury trial. Procedures providing that the parties to an action to establish paternity are not entitled to a trial by jury.
- (J) Temporary support order based on probable paternity in contested cases. Procedures which require that a temporary order be issued, upon motion by a party, requiring the provision of child support pending an administrative or judicial determination of parentage, if there is clear and convincing evidence of paternity (on the basis of genetic tests or other evidence)
- (K) Proof of certain support and paternity establishment costs. Procedures under which bills for pregnancy, childbirth, and genetic testing are admissible as evidence without requiring third-party foundation testimony, and shall constitute prima facie evidence of amounts incurred for such services or for testing on behalf of the child.
- (L) Standing of putative fathers. Procedures ensuring that the putative father has a reasonable opportunity to initiate a paternity action.
- (M) Filing of acknowledgments and adjudications in State registry of birth records. Procedures under which voluntary acknowledgments and adjudications of paternity by judicial or administrative processes are filed with the State registry of birth records for comparison with information in the State case registry.
