16 proceeding arising under this [act].

19 and granted access to the record.

20 (c) The court may allow the parties to participate in a communication under subsection

5 request the appropriate court of another state to:

6 (1) hold an evidentiary hearing;

7 (2) order a person in that state to produce or give evidence pursuant to procedures
8 of that state;

9 (3) order that an evaluation or assessment be made of the respondent, or order any 10 other investigation of a person involved in a proceeding;

11 (4) forward to the court of this state a certified copy of the transcript or other

13 presented under paragraph (a)(2), and any evaluation or assessment prepared in compliance with 14 the request under paragraph (a)(3);

15 (5) issue any other order necessary to assure the appearance of a person necessary

11 individual located in another state to be deposed or to testify by telephone or audiovisual or other 12 electronic means. A court of this state shall cooperate with courts of other states in designating 13 an appropriate location for the deposition or testimony.

1 [ARTICLE] 2

2 INITIAL JURISDICTION

3
4 SECTION 201. INITIAL JURISDICTION.

5 (a) In addition to the limited or special jurisdiction specified in subsections (b)-(d), a 6 court of this state has jurisdiction to appoint a guardian or enter a protective order for a 7 respondent if:

8 (1) this state is the respondent's home state on the date the proceeding
9 commenced, or was the home state of the respondent within six months before commencement
10 of the proceeding;

11 (2) this state is a significant connection state and:

12 (A) the respondent does not have a home state, or a court of the home
13 state has declined to exercise jurisdiction under Sections 202 or 206 on the basis that this state is 14 the more appropriate forum; or

15 (B) no proceeding has been commenced in the respondent's home state or 16 another significant connection state, no objection to the jurisdiction of the court in this state has 17 been filed, and the court in this state concludes that it is an appropriate forum; or 18 (3) this state is neither the home state nor a significant connection state but the 19 home state and all significant connection states have declined to exercise jurisdiction under 20 Sections 202 or 206, or the respondent has no home state or significant connection state.

21 (b) Whether or not a court in another state has jurisdiction, a court in this state has 22 jurisdiction to enter a protective order with respect to property located in this state.

1 (c) Whether or not a court in another state has jurisdiction, a court in this state has 2 jurisdiction to appoint an emergency guardian for a respondent who is physically present in this
3 state.

4 (d) A court in this state has jurisdiction to appoint a guardian or conservator for an 5 incapacitated or protected person for whom a proceeding has been transferred as provided in 6 [article] 3.

7 (e) This section provides the exclusive jurisdictional basis for a court of this state to 8 appoint a guardian or enter a protective order for an adult.

9 SECTION 202. EXCLUSIVE CONTINUING JURISDICTION. Except as provided
10 in Section 208, a court that has appointed a guardian or entered a protective order consistent with 11 this [act] has exclusive, continuing jurisdiction over the proceeding until it is terminated by the 12 court or transferred as provided in [article 3].

13 SECTION 203. DECLINING JURISDICTION IF ANOTHER COURT MORE
14 APPROPRIATE FORUM.

15 (a) A court having jurisdiction under Section 201 to appoint a guardian or enter a 16 protective order may decline to exercise its jurisdiction if it at any time determines that a court of 17 another state is a more appropriate forum.

18 (b) If a court of this state declines jurisdiction over a guardianship or protective 19 proceeding under subsection (a), it shall either dismiss the proceeding or stay the proceeding
20 upon condition that a guardianship or protective proceeding be promptly commenced in another 21 state. The court may impose any other condition the court considers just and proper.

22 SECTION 204. DETERMINING APPROPRIATE FORUM. In determining whether

1 it is or is not an appropriate forum, the court shall consider all relevant factors, including:

2 (1) any expressed wishes of the respondent;

3 (2) whether abuse, neglect, or exploitation of the respondent has occurred or is likely to 4 occur in the future and which state could best protect the respondent from the abuse, neglect, or 5 exploitation;

6 (3) the length of time the respondent was physically located in or was a legal resident of 7 another state;

8 (4) the distance of respondent from the court;

9 (5) the financial circumstances of the respondent's estate;

10 (6) the nature and location of the evidence required to resolve the proceeding, including 11 testimony of the respondent;

12 (7) the ability of the courts in this or other states to decide the issue expeditiously and the 13 procedures necessary to present the evidence;

14 (8) the familiarity of the courts of this and other states with the facts and issues in the 15 proceeding; and

16 (9) if an appointment is made, the court's ability to monitor the guardian's or 17 conservator's conduct; and

18 (10) whether the respondent's nomination of a guardian or conservator indicated a 19 preference for the jurisdiction to make the appointment.

20 SECTION 205. DETERMINING SIGNIFICANT CONNECTION. Among the 21 factors the court may consider in determining whether a state has a significant connection to a 22 respondent:

1 (1) whether the respondent is physically located in the state at the commencement of the 2 proceeding, although physical presence alone is neither a necessary nor sufficient factor for 3 finding a significant connection;

4 (2) the length of time the respondent has been or was formerly physically present in the 5 state and the duration of any absences;

6 (3) the location of the respondent's family and others required to be notified of the 7 guardianship or protective proceeding;

8 (4) the location of the respondent's property; and

9 (5) the extent to which the respondent has other ties to the state such as voting
10 registration, filing of tax returns, driver registration, social relationships, and receipt of services.

11 SECTION 206. JURISDICTION DECLINED BY REASON OF CONDUCT.

12 (a) If at any time a court of this state determines that it acquired jurisdiction to appoint a 13 guardian or enter a protective order because a person seeking to invoke its jurisdiction engaged in 14 unjustifiable conduct, it may;

15 (1) decline to exercise jurisdiction;

16 (2) exercise jurisdiction for the limited purpose of fashioning an appropriate 17 remedy to ensure the safety of the respondent or the respondent's property and prevent a 18 repetition of the unjustifiable conduct, including staying the proceeding until a guardianship or 19 protective proceeding is commenced in a court of another state having jurisdiction; or 20 (3) continue to exercise jurisdiction after considering:

21 (A) the extent to which the respondent and all persons required to be 22 notified of the proceedings have acquiesced in the exercise of the court's jurisdiction;

1 (B) whether this state is a more appropriate forum than any other state
2 under Section 203; and

3 (C) whether the court of any other state would have jurisdiction in 4 substantial conformity with Section 201.

5 (b) If a court of this state determines that it acquired jurisdiction to appoint a guardian or 6 enter a protective order because a person seeking to invoke its jurisdiction engaged in 7 unjustifiable conduct, it may assess against that party necessary and reasonable expenses 8 including costs, communication expenses, attorney's fees, investigative fees, expenses for 9 witnesses, and travel expenses during the course of the proceedings, unless the person from 10 whom fees are sought establishes that the assessment would be inappropriate. The court may not 11 assess fees, costs, or expenses against this state or a governmental subdivision, agency, or 12 instrumentality of this state unless authorized by law other than this [act].

13 SECTION 207. NOTICE OF PROCEEDING OTHER THAN IN HOME STATE.

14 If a petition for the appointment of a guardian or entry of a protective order is brought in a state 15 other than the respondent's home state, in addition to complying with notice requirements of 16 local law, notice of the proceeding shall be mailed to those persons who would be entitled to 17 notice of the petition were the proceeding brought in the respondent's home state.

18 SECTION 208. MULTIPLE PROCEEDINGS.

19 (a) Except for a petition for the appointment of an emergency guardian or a protective 20 order limited to property located in this state, if a petition to appoint a guardian or enter a 21 protective order is pending in more than one state, the following rules shall apply:

22 (1) if the court in this state has jurisdiction under Section 201(a), it may proceed

1 with the case unless a court in another state acquires jurisdiction under Section 201(a) prior to the 2 appointment or entry of the order;

3 (2) if the court in this state does not have jurisdiction under Section 201(a),
4 whether at the time the petition is filed or at anytime prior to the appointment or entry of the 5 order, the court shall stay the proceeding and communicate with the court in the other state, and 6 shall dismiss the proceeding if the court in the other state does not determine that the court in this 7 state is a more appropriate forum.

8 (b) If a petition for the appointment of an emergency guardian is brought in a state other 9 than the respondent's home state, the court in which the proceeding was brought shall dismiss the 10 proceeding at the direction of the court in the respondent's home state, whether dismissal is 11 requested prior to or after the emergency appointment.

1 [ARTICLE] 3

2 TRANSFER OF JURISDICTION

3
4 SECTION 301. PETITION TO TRANSFER JURISDICTION TO ANOTHER
5 STATE.

6 (a) Following the appointment of a guardian or entry of a protective order, the guardian or 7 conservator may petition the court to transfer the proceeding to another state on the basis that the 8 incapacitated or protected person will move permanently to the other state;

9 (b) Notice of the petition to transfer a guardianship or protective proceeding under 10 subsection (a) must be served personally on the incapacitated or protected person, filed with the 11 court in the jurisdiction to which the proceeding is to be transferred, and mailed to those persons
12 who would be entitled to notice of a petition in the transferring state for the appointment of a 13 guardian or entry of a protective order.

14 (c) On the court's own motion or on request of the incapacitated, protected, or other 15 interested person, the court shall hold a hearing on a petition filed pursuant to subsection (a).

16 (d) The court shall enter an order provisionally granting a petition filed pursuant to 17 subsection (a) if the court finds that:

18 (1) the incapacitated or protected person will move permanently to the other state;

19 (2) no objection to the transfer has been made, or if an objection has been made,
20 the objector has not established that transfer of the proceeding would be contrary to the interests
21 of the incapacitated or protected person;

22 (3) the court is satisfied that the plans for the incapacitated person in the new state

1 are reasonable and sufficient or, in the case of a conservatorship, adequate arrangements will be 2 made for management of the protected person's property; and

3 (4) the court is satisfied that the guardianship or protective proceeding will be 4 accepted by the court to which the guardian or conservator has indicated the proceeding will be 5 transferred.

6 (e) To facilitate the orderly transfer of the guardianship or protective proceeding under 7 this section, the court in this state shall coordinate efforts with the court in the state to which the 8 proceeding will be transferred.

9 (f) Upon receipt from the court of the other state of the order accepting the guardianship
10 or protective proceeding and the filing of the documents required in this state to terminate a 11 guardianship or protective proceeding, the court shall enter an order terminating the guardianship 12 or protective proceeding in this state and confirming the transfer of the proceeding to the other
13 state.

14 SECTION 302. PETITION TO ACCEPT PROCEEDING TRANSFERRED FROM 15 ANOTHER STATE.

16 (a) Upon entry of a provisional order in another state to transfer a guardianship or 17 protective proceeding to this state under procedures similar to those in Section 301, the guardian 18 or conservator shall petition the court in this state to accept the guardianship or protective 19 proceeding.

20 (b) Notice of a petition under subsection (a) to accept a guardianship or protective 21 proceeding from another state must be served personally on the incapacitated or protected person, 22 filed with the court in this state that is being requested to accept transfer of the guardianship or

1 protective proceeding, and mailed to those persons who would be entitled to notice were the 2 petition a petition for the appointment of a guardian or entry of a protective order in the 3 transferring state or in this state.

4 (c) On the court's own motion or on request of the incapacitated, protected, or other 5 interested person, the court shall hold a hearing on a petition filed pursuant to subsection (a) to 6 accept a guardianship or protective proceeding from another state.

7 (d) The court shall issue an order provisionally approving a petition filed under 8 subsection (a) to accept a guardianship or protective proceeding from another state unless an 9 objection is made and the objector establishes that transfer of the proceeding would be contrary
10 to the interests of the incapacitated or protected person.

11 (e) In approving a petition under this section, the court shall give full faith and credit to 12 the guardianship or protective order from the other state, including the determination of the 13 incapacitated or protected person's incapacity and the appointment of the guardian or 14 conservator, if eligible to act in this state.

15 (f) Upon receipt of the order from the transferring state terminating the guardianship or 16 protective proceeding and confirming the transfer of the proceeding to this state, the court shall 17 enter a final order appointing the guardian or conservator as guardian or conservator in this state
18 and issuing appropriate letters of office. Following the appointment, the court has exclusive, 19 continuing jurisdiction over the proceeding until it is terminated by the court or transferred as 20 provided in this article.

21 (g) To facilitate the orderly transfer of a guardianship or protective proceeding under this 22 section, the court shall coordinate efforts with the court in the transferring state.

1 (h) The denial of a petition under this section to accept a guardianship or protective 2 proceeding from another state does not affect the ability of a guardian or conservator appointed
3 by a court in another state to maintain a proceeding to be appointed guardian of the incapacitated
4 person or conservator of the protected person under [insert statutory references for the regular 5 appointment of guardian or conservator].

6 (i) Within [90] days after entry of a final order accepting a guardianship or protective 7 proceeding transferred from another state, the court must hold a hearing for the limited purpose
8 of determining whether the guardianship or protective proceeding must be modified to conform
9 to the law of this state.

1 [ARTICLE] 4

2 REGISTRATION AND RECOGNITION OF ORDERS FROM OTHER STATES

3
4 SECTION 401. REGISTRATION OF GUARDIANSHIP ORDERS. If a guardian
5 has not been appointed in this state and a petition for the appointment of a guardian is not 6 pending in this state, a guardian appointed for the individual in another state may register the 7 guardianship proceeding in this state by filing in a court in any [appropriate county] of this state
8 certified, authenticated, or exemplified copies of the order and letters of appointment. On receipt 9 of these documents, the registering court shall cause the order to be filed as a foreign judgment, 10 together with one copy of any accompanying documents and information.

11 SECTION 402. REGISTRATION OF CONSERVATORSHIP ORDERS. If a 12 conservator has not been appointed in this state and a petition for a protective order is not 13 pending in this state, a conservator appointed for the individual in another state may register the 14 protective proceeding in this state by filing in a court of this state, in a [county] in which property 15 belonging to the protected person is located, certified, exemplified, or authenticated copies of 16 letters of the order and letters of appointment and of any bond. On receipt of these documents, 17 the registering court shall cause the order to be filed as a foreign judgment, together with one 18 copy of any accompanying documents and information.

19 SECTION 403. EFFECT OF REGISTRATION.

20 (a) Upon registration of a guardianship or protective proceeding from another state, the 21 guardian or conservator may exercise in this state all powers authorized in the order of 22 appointment except as prohibited under the laws of this state, including maintaining actions and

1 proceedings in this state subject to any conditions otherwise imposed upon nonresident parties.

2 (b) A court of this state shall recognize a guardianship or protective order issued by a
3 court of another state which has been registered in this state and otherwise grant any relief
4 normally available under the law of this state to enforce the order in the same manner as an order 5 issued in this state.
