HARMONIZED UNIFORM STATUTORY TRUST ENTITY ACT

Introductory Reporters’ Note

The proposed revisions to the text of the act set forth in this document have been prepared as part of a project that has two purposes: (i) to harmonize the language of all of the unincorporated entity laws, and (ii) to revise the language of each of those acts in a manner that permits their integration into a single code of entity laws.

The Comments to the act have been omitted from this document to reduce its length. Following the approval of the changes in this document by the Conference, the Comments will be restored with appropriate changes.

The harmonization process has involved the revision of the following acts, some of which are referred to in the Reporters’ Notes by the abbreviations listed below:

- HUB: Business Organizations Act
- META: Model Entity Transactions Act
- MORAA: Model Registered Agents Act
- USTEA: Uniform Statutory Trust Entity Act
- Coop Act: Uniform Limited Cooperative Association Act

Changes to the currently effective text of the act are shown by striking through text to be deleted and underlining text to be added. Regular type is used to show changes that, (i) adopt language from the HUB, META, or MORAA, (ii) are merely relocations of current language, or (iii) are corrections for the sake of internal consistency within an act. Changes that adopt language from other unincorporated entity acts are shown in italics. Changes that do not have a source in one of the existing unincorporated entity acts are shown in small caps. Often a change in small caps made to one act will be replicated in other acts as a matter of harmonization. These replications are shown in regular type when the small caps change is made in the HUB, META, or MORAA, and are shown in italics when the small caps change is made in one of the other acts.

Harmonization and USTEA

Harmonizing USTEA requires special sensitivity, because USTEA seeks to be simultaneously an act based on trust principles and a business entity statute. See USTEA § 105 (“The law of this state pertaining to common-law trusts supplements this [act].”) and Prefatory Note (referring to the “[i]ncreasing use of the statutory trust as a mode of business organization”).

Although USTEA is the Conference’s newest entity statute (with some clear improvements over earlier acts), UPA, ULPA, and ULLCA comprise the core of the Conference’s approach to unincorporated entities. These statutes reflect substantial policy decisions made by the Conference over the past two decades.

Because, with proper drafting of the trust documents, an USTEA statutory trust can function interchangeably with partnerships, limited partnerships, and limited liability companies, the harmonization question is of critical importance. Absent a distinguishing rationale, it makes no sense for the Conference to take a particular policy decision in UPA, ULPA, and ULLCA and a different position in USTEA. Moreover, the recent (and already notorious) case of Olmstead v. F.T.C., 44 So.3d 76 (Fl. 2010) illustrates the danger of courts interpreting one statute involving one type of unincorporated entity in terms of language added or omitted in another statute involving another type of unincorporated entity.

Either of two reasons justifies choosing USTEA’s approach over the UPA-ULPA-ULLCA core: (i) USTEA has a better approach, applicable across the board; or (ii) a clear, articulated policy reason exists for USTEA having a unique approach.

In the view of the Harmonization drafting committee, many of USTEA’s unusual provisions fit one or the other of the two reasons. When the first reason applies, other acts are being harmonized to USTEA. When the second reason applies, the other acts are not being harmonized with USTEA. When neither reason seems to apply, this draft chooses harmonization.

The Harmonization drafting committee, its chair, vice chair, and co-reporters deeply appreciate the insightful help provided by Professor Robert Sitkoff, reporter for USTEA and Commissioner from Massachusetts.

statutory trust or foreign statutory trust in accordance with the governing instrument or applicable law.

Reporters’ Note

Section 10(21) [trust instrument] – substituting “activities and affairs” for “business” reflects the decision not to require a statutory entity trust to have a business purpose. See Section 303(a). However, a statutory trust may not have primarily donative purpose. See Section 303(b).

SECTION 103. GOVERNING INSTRUMENT.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) or Section 104, the governing instrument governs:

(1) the management, affairs, and conduct of the business activities and affairs of a statutory trust; and

(c) The governing instrument may include one or more instruments, agreements, declarations, bylaws, or other records and refer to or incorporate any record.

(d) The governing instrument may be amended with the approval of all the beneficial owners.

(e) Subject to Section 104, without limiting the terms that may be included in a governing instrument, the governing instrument may:

(12) provide that a person becomes a beneficial owner, acquires a beneficial interest, and is bound by the governing instrument if the person complies with the conditions for

(6) (8) vary the obligation under Section 506 to act in good faith reasonably if a trustee or other person is not to be liable for relying on a term of the governing instrument, a record of the statutory trust, or an opinion, report, or statement of another person, but the governing instrument may prescribe the standards for assessing whether the reliance was in good faith, if the standards are not manifestly unreasonable;

SECTION 105. APPLICABILITY OF TRUST LAW. The law of this state pertaining to common-law trusts supplements this [act]. However, the governing instrument may supersede or modify application to the statutory trust of any law of this state pertaining to common-law trusts.
This language is purposefully different than the traditional reference to “law and equity.” The USTEA drafting committee made a considered decision to use trust law as the background and gap filler.

SECTION 106. RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.

(a) This [act] must be liberally construed to give maximum effect to the principle of freedom of contract and to the enforceability of governing instruments.

(b) The presumption that a civil statute in derogation of the common law is construed strictly does not apply to this [act].

Reporters’ Notes

Former Subsection (a) – This provision is a symbol for and product of the strict contractarian perspective, and the Conference has never previously accepted the provision. To the contrary, UPA has no such provision, and during the drafting of ULPA and ULLCA the issue was assiduously considered and the position rejected.

The provision is not necessary to the full functioning of the governing instrument, which is not necessarily even a contract. (Indeed, as Professor Sitkoff has explained to the Harmonization committee, a breach of the governing instrument is treated as a breach of trust, not a breach of contract.)

Moreover, the “maximum effect” provision can cause mischief – not only for the unsophisticated, see e.g. Daniel S. Kleinberger, “Careful What You Wish For--Freedom of Contract and the Necessity of Careful Scrivening,” XXIV PUBOGRAM 19 (October, 2006) (Committee on Partnerships and Unincorporated Business Organizations of the ABA Business Law Section), but also for the sophisticated. See e.g. Fisk Ventures, LLC v. Segal, No. Civ. A. 3017-CC, 2008 WL 1961156, at *8 (Del. Ch., May 7, 2008) (stating that “limited liability companies…are creatures not of the state but of contract” – despite the LLC’s dependence on the state for its formal creation and, more importantly, the liability shield for the LLC’s members).

Given the statutory trust’s role as a business organization, it is impossible to discern a rationale for including the provision here and not in UPA, ULPA, and ULLCA. But inserting a “maximum effect” provision in those statutes would reverse almost 30 years of Conference policy.

Subsection (b) – The Conference long ago stopped including this language in its Acts. However, the Comments to USTEA identify a special need: “Subsection (b) directs the courts not to apply to this act the canon of construction that statutes in derogation of the common law are to be strictly construed. The drafting committee included this provision because many of this act’s provisions are designed specifically to override one or more common-law trust principles that would otherwise be applicable to a statutory trust under Section 105. Such provisions deliberately derogate the common law of trusts and should be interpreted in accordance with that purpose.”

SECTION 107. CONSTRUCTIVE NOTICE. A person that is not a beneficial owner is deemed to have notice of a statutory trust’s merger, interest exchange, conversion, or domestication 90 days after articles of merger, interest exchange, conversion, or domestication under [Article] 7 become effective.

Reporters' Note

Unlike UPA, ULPA, and ULLCA, USTEA does not define knowledge and notice. The omission is not problematic from a harmonization perspective, because USTEA does not contain the same type of provisions for constructive notice as do these other acts. However, consistent with harmonization, a constructive notice provision relating to organic transactions (merger, etc.) has been added.

SECTION 108. RESERVATION OF POWER TO AMEND OR REPEAL. The [name of state legislature] has power to amend or repeal all or part of this [act] at any time and all statutory trusts and foreign statutory trusts subject to this [act] are governed by the amendment or repeal.

of subsection (a) that applies. If the [Secretary of State] finds that the name is available for use by the applicant, the [Secretary of State] shall file a statement of name reservation and thereby reserve the name for the exclusive use of the applicant for a 120-day period.

(c) A person that has reserved a name pursuant to subsection (b) may reserve the same name for additional 120-day periods. A person having a current reservation for a name may not apply for an additional 120-day period for the same name until 90 days have elapsed under the current reservation.

(2) a notice of termination of the person’s reservation.

(a) A person may reserve the exclusive use of the name by delivering an application to the [Secretary of State] for filing. The application must state the name and address of the applicant and the name to be reserved. If the [Secretary of State] finds that the name is available,

(b) A registered agent promptly shall furnish notice to the represented statutory trust or registered foreign statutory trust of the filing by the [Secretary of State] of the statement of change and the changes made by the statement.

Reporters' Note

A legislative note will suggest that enacting jurisdictions consider authorizing the filing office to adopt procedures under which a single statement of change filed by a registered agent would apply to every entity represented by the agent.

SECTION 242 220. SERVICE OF PROCESS, NOTICE, OR DEMAND.

(a) An agent for service of process appointed by a statutory trust or qualified foreign statutory trust is an agent of the trust for service of any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served on the trust.

[ARTICLE] 3

GOVERNING LAW; AUTHORIZATION; DURATION; POWERS

SECTION 301. GOVERNING LAW. The law of this state governs:
   (1) the internal affairs of a statutory trust;
   (2) the liability of a beneficial owner as beneficial owner, AND a trustee as trustee, AND A PERSON DESIGNATED UNDER SECTION 103(E)(8) OR (9) AS A PERSON IN THE DESIGNATED CAPACITY, for a debt, obligation, or other liability of a statutory trust or a series thereof; and
   (3) the ENFORCEABILITY OF EXTENT TO WHICH:
       (A) a debt, obligation, or other liability of THE STATUTORY TRUST OR A SERIES THEREOF A SERIES TRUST IS ENFORCEABLE against the property of THE TRUST OR any series thereof; AND
       (B) A DEBT, OBLIGATION, OR OTHER LIABILITY OF A SERIES OF A SERIES TRUST IS ENFORCEABLE AGAINST THE PROPERTY OF THE TRUST OR ANY OTHER SERIES THEREOF.
Reporters' Notes

Paragraph (2) - The added language is analogous to the protection offered managers of an LLC.

Paragraph (3) – The change is to make certain that the language applies only to the question of internal shields. For example, the paragraph does not purport to choose the law to determine whether a valid claim exists against the assets of a series trust. The paragraph does control which assets of the trust are amenable to attachment and levy in enforcing that claim.

SECTION 302. STATUTORY TRUST AS ENTITY. A statutory trust is an entity separate distinct from its trustees and beneficial owners.

SECTION 303. PERMISSIBLE PURPOSES.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), a statutory trust may have any lawful purpose, regardless of whether for profit.

(b) A statutory trust may not have a predominantly donative purpose.

Reporters’ Note

Subsection (a) – A statutory trust may not have a predominantly donative purpose in order to prevent avoidance through use of a statutory trust of the various policy-based limits on donative transfers that apply to common-law trust. Consistent with ULPA and ULLCA, however, a trust need not have a profit-making or business purpose.

SECTION 304. STATUTORY TRUST SOLELY LIABLE FOR DEBT, OBLIGATION, OR OTHER LIABILITY OF STATUTORY TRUST LIMITATION ON LIABILITY OF TRUSTEES AND BENEFICIAL OWNERS.

(a) A debt, obligation, or other liability of a statutory trust or series thereof is solely a the debt, obligation, or other liability of the trust or series thereof. A beneficial owner, trustee, agent of the trust, or agent of the trustee or person designated pursuant to Section 103(e)(8) or (9) is not personally liable, directly or indirectly, by way of contribution or otherwise, for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the trust or series thereof solely by reason of being or acting as a trustee, beneficial owner, trustee, or agent of the trust, or agent of the trustee person designated pursuant to Section 103(e)(8) or (9), or beneficial owner. This subsection applies regardless of the dissolution of the trust.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in [Article] 4, property of a statutory trust held in the name of the trust or by the trustee in the trustee’s capacity as trustee is subject to attachment and execution to satisfy a debt, obligation, or other liability of the trust.

SECTION 305. NO CREDITOR RIGHTS IN TRUST PROPERTY. A creditor of a beneficial owner or trustee may not obtain possession of, or otherwise exercise legal or equitable remedies with respect to, the property of a statutory trust or any series thereof.

SECTION 306. DURATION.

(a) A statutory trust:

(1) has perpetual duration; and

(2) may not be terminated or revoked except in accordance with this [act] or the terms of the trust’s certificate of trust.

(b) A series of a statutory trust, or any series thereof, may not be terminated or revoked except in accordance with this [act] or the terms of the governing instrument.

(c) The death, incapacity, dissolution, termination, or bankruptcy of a beneficial owner, trustee, or person designated under Section 103(e)(8) or (9) does not result in the termination or dissolution of a statutory trust or any series thereof.

(d) A statutory trust or any series thereof does not terminate because the same person is the sole trustee and sole beneficial owner.

SECTION 307. POWER TO HOLD PROPERTY; TITLE TO TRUST

PROPERTY. A statutory trust may hold or take title to property in its own name, or in the name of a trustee in the trustee’s capacity as trustee, whether in an active, passive, or custodial capacity.
SECTION 308. POWER TO SUE AND BE SUED. A statutory trust may sue and be sued in its own name.

[ARTICLE 4]

SERIES TRUSTS

SECTION 401. STATUTORY TRUST HAVING SERIES.

(a) The governing instrument may provide for the creation by the statutory trust of one or more series with respect to specified property of the statutory trust if:

(1) records are maintained for the series which reasonably identify the property of the series, including by specific listing, category, type, quantity, or computational or allocational formula or procedure, such as a percentage or share of any property, or by any other method by which the identity of the property of the series is objectively determinable; and

(2) notice that the trust may have one or more series is set forth in the certificate of trust as required by Section 201(b)(4).

(b) A series of a statutory trust is not an entity separate from the statutory trust.

(c) A series of a statutory trust may have a separate purpose, whether or not for profit, separate from the trust or any other series thereof if the purpose of the series is lawful and not a predominantly donative purpose.

(D) SUBJECT TO SECTION 404, THE GOVERNING INSTRUMENT MAY PROVIDE FOR THE CREATION OF ONE OR MORE CLASSES OF TRUSTEES, BENEFICIAL OWNERS, OR BENEFICIAL INTERESTS HAVING SEPARATE RIGHTS, POWERS, OR DUTIES WITH RESPECT TO THE STATUTORY TRUST OR ANY SERIES THEREOF.

SECTION 402. LIABILITY OF SERIES TRUST.

(a) In a series trust:

(1) a debt, obligation, or other liability incurred or otherwise existing with respect to the property of a particular series is enforceable against the property of the series only, and not against the property of the trust generally or any other series thereof; and

(2) a debt, obligation, or other liability incurred or otherwise existing with respect to the trust generally or the property of any other series thereof is not enforceable against the property of the series.

(b) THE RULES PERTAINING TO DISTRIBUTIONS UNDER SECTIONS 615 AND 616 APPLY TO A DISTRIBUTION FROM A SERIES TRUST AND FROM THE PROPERTY OF ANY SERIES THEREOF, EXCEPT FOR A DISTRIBUTION UNDER SECTION 405.

(c) The association, disassociation, or reassociation of property of a statutory trust or a series thereof to or with the trust or a series thereof, including by conversion or merger a transaction under [Article] 7, is deemed to be a transfer between separate persons under [Uniform Fraudulent Transfers Act or other state fraudulent transfer statute] AND A DISTRIBUTION UNDER SECTION 615.

Reporters’ Notes

Subsection (b)- Although a series is not a separate entity, distributions can be made from the property of a series. It is necessary, therefore, to apply the act’s rules on permissible distributions to distributions from a series. Section 405 pertains to liquidating distributions. Section 615 contains a comparable exclusion for liquidating distributions from the trust entity.

Subsection (c) – This subsection seeks to protect creditors and pertains principally to shifts of property from one series to another, or between the trust and a series. The added language adds another protection and parallels the double protection that applies to distributions – i.e., both section 615 and the UFTA.

SECTION 403. CLAIMS PERTAINING TO A SERIES.

(a) A series of a statutory trust may not sue or be sued in its own name.

(b) If a series trust has a claim against a person which pertains to the property of a series thereof, the trust may assert the claim under Section 308 and shall allocate the proceeds of the claim under Sections 401 and 402.
(c) If a person has a claim against a series trust which pertains to the property of a series thereof, to assert the claim the person must bring the claim against the trust, stating that the claim pertains to the property of a series thereof and specifying the series if known. To the extent the claim succeeds and is reduced to judgment:

(1) the judgment must state that it is collectable only against the property of the specified series; and

(2) the judgment creditor may levy on the judgment only by serving the series trust, which shall satisfy the judgment using only the property of the specified series.

SECTION 403 404. DUTIES OF TRUSTEE IN SERIES TRUST. If there is at least one trustee of a series trust that, in discharging its duties, is obligated to consider the interests of the trust and all series thereof, the governing instrument may provide that one or more other trustees, in discharging their duties, may consider only the interests of the trust or one or more series thereof.

SECTION 404 405. DISSOLUTION OF SERIES.

(a) A series of a series trust may be dissolved or its property distributed without causing the dissolution of the trust or any other series thereof.

(b) A series of a series trust is dissolved, and its activities must be wound up, on the occurrence of an event or circumstance that the governing instrument states causes dissolution of the series or upon the dissolution of the trust.

(c) On dissolution of a series of a series trust, the persons that under the governing instrument are responsible for winding up the affairs of the series may cause the trust to take all actions permitted under Section 803 and shall take actions with respect to the claims and obligations of the series as provided in Sections 803 through 805.

(d) A person, including a trustee, that under the governing instrument is responsible for winding up the affairs of a series of a series trust is not liable to the creditors of the dissolved series SOLELY by reason of the PERSON’S ACTIONS IN WINDING UP THE SERIES PERSON ACTING IN THAT CAPACITY.

[ARTICLE 5]

TRUSTEES AND TRUST MANAGEMENT

SECTION 501. MANAGEMENT OF STATUTORY TRUST. The business activities and affairs of a statutory trust must be managed by or under the authority of its trustees.

SECTION 502. TRUSTEE POWERS. A trustee may exercise:

(1) powers conferred by the governing instrument;

(2) except as limited by the governing instrument, any other powers necessary or convenient to carry out the business activities and affairs of the statutory trust; and

(3) other powers conferred by this [act].

SECTION 503. ACTION BY TRUSTEES. On any matter that is to be acted on by trustees, the following rules apply:

(1) The trustees act by majority of the trustees.

(2) The trustees may act without a meeting, without previous notice, and without a vote, if the minimum number of trustees necessary to authorize or take the action at a meeting at which all trustees entitled to vote thereon were present and voted consent in a signed record.
However, prompt notice of the action must be given to those trustees that did not consent.

(3) A trustee may vote in person or by proxy, but, if by proxy, the proxy must be in a signed record.

SECTION 504. PROTECTION OF PERSON DEALING WITH TRUSTEE.

(a) A person that in good faith assists a trustee, or in good faith and for value deals with a trustee, without knowledge that the trustee is exceeding or improperly exercising the trustee’s power, is protected from liability as if the trustee properly exercised the power.

(b) A person that in good faith deals with a trustee need not inquire into the extent of a trustee’s power or the propriety of the exercise of the power.

(c) A person that in good faith delivers property to a trustee need not ensure its proper use.

(d) A person that in good faith and without knowledge that the trusteeship has terminated assists a former trustee as if the former trustee were still a trustee, or in good faith and for value deals with a former trustee as if the former trustee were still a trustee, is protected from liability as if the former trustee were still a trustee.

Reporters’ Notes

Subsection (a) considers both a person assisting and one dealing with a trustee. In contrast, subsection (b) refers only to a person dealing with the trustee. The difference between the subsections makes sense in light of the comment: “Subsection (b) therefore overrides the application to a statutory trust under Section 105 of the outmoded common-law rule that third parties that deal with the trustee are charged with constructive notice of the trust’s governing instrument and its contents.” However, the difference could be read as implying a negative (i.e. those the opposite of subsection (b) applies to those who assist). That implication is not intended. A comment will explain that this formulation merely follows the Trust Code and no negative implication is intended.

SECTION 505. STANDARDS OF CONDUCT FOR TRUSTEES.

(a) Subject to Section 403 404, in exercising the powers of trusteeship, a trustee shall act in good faith and in a manner the trustee reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the statutory trust.

(b) A trustee shall discharge its duties with the care that a person in a similar position would reasonably believe appropriate under similar circumstances.

SECTION 506. GOOD-FAITH REASONABLE RELIANCE. A trustee, officer, employee, manager, or committee of a statutory trust, or other person designated pursuant to Section 103(e)(8) or (9), is not liable to the trust or to a beneficial owner for breach of any duty, including a fiduciary duty, to the extent the breach results from GOOD FAITH REASONABLE reliance on:

(1) a term of the governing instrument;
(2) a record of the statutory trust; or
(3) an opinion, report, or statement of another person that the person to which the opinion, report, or statement is made or delivered reasonably believes is within the other person’s professional or expert competence and is made or delivered to the trustee, officer, employee, manager, or committee of a statutory trust, or other person designated pursuant to Section 103(e)(8) or (9).

Reporters’ Note
To harmonize this section with Uniform Trust Code § 1006, on which this section was based, the standard of reliance was changed from good faith to reasonable.

SECTION 507. INTERESTED TRANSACTIONS.

(a) In this section, “covered party” means a trustee, officer, employee, or manager of a statutory trust, or a related party of a trustee, officer, employee, manager, or other person designated pursuant to Section 103(e)(8) or (9).

(b) Subject to subsection (c), a covered party may lend money to, borrow money from, act as a surety, guarantor, or endorser for, guarantee or assume an obligation of, provide collateral for, or do other business with the statutory trust and, subject to law other than this [act], has the same rights and obligations with respect to those matters as a person that is not a covered party.

(c) A transaction described in subsection (b) is voidable by the statutory trust unless the covered party shows that the transaction is fair to the trust.

SECTION 508. TRUSTEE’S RIGHT TO INFORMATION. A trustee has the right to receive from a statutory trust or another trustee information relating to the affairs of the trust.
which is reasonably related to the trustee’s discharge of the trustee’s duties as trustee. The trustee may enforce this right by summary proceeding in the [appropriate court].

SECTION 509. REIMBURSEMENT, INDEMNIFICATION, ADVANCEMENT, AND EXONERATION.

(a) A statutory trust shall reimburse a trustee for any payment made by the trustee in the course of the trustee’s activities on behalf of the statutory trust, if the trustee complied with Sections 505 and 615 in making the payment.

(b) A statutory trust may indemnify and hold harmless a trustee, beneficial owner, or other person designated pursuant to Section 103(e)(8) or (9) with respect to any claim or demand against the person by reason of the person’s relationship with the trust if the claim or demand does not arise from the person’s bad faith, willful misconduct, or reckless indifference.

(c) Expenses, including reasonable attorney’s fees and costs, incurred by a trustee, beneficial owner, or other person designated pursuant to Section 103(e)(8) or (9) in connection with a claim or demand against the person by reason of the person’s relationship to a statutory trust may be paid by the trust before the final disposition of the claim or demand, upon an undertaking by or on behalf of the person to repay the trust if the person is ultimately determined not to be entitled to be indemnified under subsection (a) (b).

(d) A term in the governing instrument relieving or exonerating a trustee or person designated under Section 103(e)(8) or (9) from liability is unenforceable to the extent it relieves or exonerates the trustee from liability for conduct involving bad faith, willful misconduct, or reckless indifference.

(e) A statutory trust may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a trustee or person designated under Section 103(e)(8) or (9), or beneficial owner of the trust against liability asserted against or incurred by the trustee, person, or beneficial owner in that capacity or arising from that status even if, under Section 104(9), the trust instrument could not eliminate or limit the person's liability to the trust for the conduct giving rise to the liability.

SECTION 510. DIRECTION OF TRUSTEES.

(a) The governing instrument may authorize any person, including a beneficial owner, to direct a trustee or other person in the management of a statutory trust.

(b) The governing instrument may provide that neither the power to direct a trustee or other person nor the exercise of the power by any person, including a beneficial owner, causes the person to be a trustee or imposes on the person duties, including fiduciary duties, or liabilities relating to these duties, to a statutory trust or beneficial owner.

(c) If the governing instrument confers on a person a power to direct actions by a trustee or other person, the trustee or other person shall act in accordance with an exercise of the power, unless the direction is manifestly contrary to the terms of the governing instrument or the trustee knows or has reason to know that following the direction would constitute a serious breach of fiduciary duty by the trustee.

SECTION 511. DELEGATION BY TRUSTEE.

(a) A trustee may delegate duties and powers. The trustee shall exercise the care a person in a similar position would reasonably believe appropriate under similar circumstances in:

(1) selecting an agent;

(2) establishing the scope and terms of the delegation; and

(3) periodically reviewing the agent's actions in order to monitor the agent's performance and compliance with the terms of the delegation.

(b) Subject to subsection (a), a trustee may delegate duties and powers to a co-trustee.

(c) In performing a delegated function, an agent of a trustee owes a duty to the statutory trust to exercise reasonable care to comply with the terms of the delegation.
(d) A trustee that complies with subsection (a) is not liable to a beneficial owner or to the statutory trust for an act or omission of the agent of the trustee to which a function was delegated.

SECTION 512. INDEPENDENT TRUSTEE IN REGISTERED INVESTMENT COMPANY.

(a) In this section, “affiliated person” and “interested person” have the meanings set forth in the Investment Company Act of 1940, [as amended,] 15 U.S.C. Section 80a-1 et seq. [or any successor statute] [and any regulations issued thereunder].

(b) If a statutory trust is registered as an investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, [as amended,] 15 U.S.C. Section 80a-1 et seq., [or any successor statute] [and any regulations issued thereunder,] a trustee is an independent trustee for all purposes under this [act] if the trustee is not an interested person of the trust. The receipt of compensation both for service as an independent trustee of the trust and for service as an independent trustee of one or more other investment companies managed by a single investment adviser or an affiliated person of an investment adviser, does not affect the status of the trustee as an independent trustee under this section.

[ARTICLE] 6

BENEFICIARIES AND BENEFICIAL RIGHTS OWNERS

SECTION 601. BENEFICIAL INTEREST.

(a) A beneficial interest in a statutory trust is freely transferable.

(b) A beneficial interest in a statutory trust is personal property regardless of the nature of the property of the trust.
A beneficial interest in a statutory trust is not an interest in specific property of the statutory trust.

A beneficial owner does not have a preemptive right to subscribe to any additional issue of beneficial interests or any other interest of a statutory trust.

SECTION 602. TRANSFER OF BENEFICIAL INTEREST

(A) In this section, “Covered Creditor” means a judgment creditor of a beneficial owner or a person to which a beneficial interest has been transferred by operation of law.

(B) A beneficial interest in a statutory trust is freely transferable.

(C) The governing instrument may not limit the transferability of a beneficial interest if the same person is the sole trustee and sole beneficial owner.

(D) To the extent a beneficial interest is not freely transferable by a beneficial owner such that any transferee becomes a beneficial owner without further requirement except notice to the statutory trust, the following rules apply:

(1) On petition by a covered creditor, [the appropriate court] may authorize the petitioner to reach the beneficial owner’s interest by attachment of present or future distributions to or for the benefit of the beneficial owner or by other means. The court may limit the award to relief that is appropriate under the circumstances.

(2) On petition by a covered creditor, to the extent a trustee has not complied with a standard of distribution provided in the governing instrument or has abused the trustee’s discretion to make a distribution, [the appropriate court]:

(A) may order a distribution to the benefit of the petitioner; and

(B) if a distribution is ordered, shall direct the trustee to pay to
THE PETITIONER AN EQUITABLE AMOUNT BUT NOT MORE THAN THE AMOUNT THE TRUSTEE WOULD HAVE BEEN REQUIRED TO DISTRIBUTE TO OR FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE BENEFICIAL OWNER IF THE TRUSTEE HAD COMPLIED WITH THE STANDARD OR HAD NOT ABUSED THE DISCRETION.

Reporters’ Notes

This section, derived from the Uniform Trust Code § 504, replaces former Section 606 (on charging orders). The USTEA drafting committee intended former Section 606 to protect legitimate creditors from abusive uses of statutory entity trusts. The Harmonization Committee welcomed the goal but believed that – for various historical and political reasons and in light of the very different role for charging orders under HULLCA, HULPA, and RUPA – the charging order rubric was not the proper approach for USTEA. The Reporter for USTEA suggested reference to the Uniform Trust Code, and he and the Harmonization co-reporters fashioned this remedy.

SECTION 602 603. VOTING OR CONSENT BY BENEFICIAL OWNERS. On any matter that is to be acted on by beneficial owners, the following rules apply:

(1) The beneficial owners act by majority of the beneficial interests.

(2) The beneficial owners may take the action without a meeting, without notice, and without a vote, if beneficial owners having at least the minimum number of votes necessary to authorize or take the action at a meeting at which all beneficial owners entitled to vote thereon were present and voted consent in a signed record. However, prompt notice of the action must be given to those beneficial owners that did not consent.

(3) A beneficial owner may vote in person or by proxy, but if by proxy, the proxy must be contained in a signed record.

SECTION 603 604. FORM OF AND LIABILITY FOR CONTRIBUTIONS

CONTRIBUTION BY BENEFICIAL OWNER.

(a) A contribution of a beneficial owner to a statutory trust may be in cash, property, or services rendered or a promissory note or other obligation to contribute cash or property or to perform services. A contribution may consist of property transferred, services performed, or another benefit provided to the statutory trust or an agreement to transfer property, perform services, or provide another benefit.

(b) A person may become a beneficial owner of a statutory trust and may receive a beneficial interest in a statutory trust without making a contribution or being obligated to make a contribution to the trust.

(b) (c) A beneficial owner is liable to the statutory trust for failure to perform an obligation to contribute cash or property or to perform services, even if the beneficial owner is unable to perform because of death, disability, or any other reason. If a beneficial owner does not make the required contribution of cash, property, or services, the beneficial owner is obligated, at the option of the trust, to contribute cash equal to that part of the value of the contribution that has not been made. This obligation is in addition to any other right, including the right to specific performance, that the trust has against the beneficial owner under the governing instrument or applicable law. A person’s obligation to contribute money or other property or other benefit to, or to perform services for, a statutory trust is not excused by the person’s death, disability, or other inability to perform personally.

(d) If a person does not fulfill an obligation to make a contribution, the person is obligated at the option of the trustee to contribute money equal to the value of the part of the contribution which has not been made.

(e) (e) The governing instrument may provide that a beneficial owner that fails to make a required contribution, or comply with the terms and conditions of the governing instrument, is subject to specified penalties for or consequences of the failure, including:

(1) reduction or elimination of the defaulting beneficial owner’s proportionate interest in the statutory trust or series thereof;

(2) subordination of the defaulting beneficial owner’s beneficial interest to that of nondefaulting beneficial owners;
(3) forced sale or forfeiture of the defaulting beneficial owner’s beneficial interest;

(4) imposition of an obligation to repay a loan to the statutory trust by another beneficial owner of the amount necessary to meet the defaulting beneficial owner’s commitment;

(5) redemption or sale of the defaulting beneficial owner’s beneficial interest at a value fixed by appraisal or by formula; and

(6) specific performance of an obligation under the governing instrument.

SECTION 604. DISTRIBUTION TO BENEFICIAL OWNER RIGHT TO DISTRIBUTIONS BEFORE DISSOLUTION.

(a) When any distributions made by a statutory trust before its dissolution and winding up must be in proportion to the beneficial interests.

(b) If a beneficial owner becomes entitled to receive a distribution, with respect to the distribution, the beneficial owner has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of the statutory trust with respect to the distribution.

(c) A beneficial owner has a right to a distribution before the dissolution and winding up of a statutory trust only if the trustee decides to make an interim distribution. A beneficial owner does not have a right to demand or receive a distribution from the trust in any form other than money.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in Section 803(b), the trust may distribute an asset in kind only if each part of the asset is fungible with each other part and each beneficial owner receives a percentage of the asset equal in value to the beneficial owner’s share of the distribution distributions.

SECTION 605. REDEMPTION OF BENEFICIAL INTEREST. A statutory trust may acquire, by purchase, redemption, or otherwise, any beneficial interest in the trust or series thereof. A beneficial interest acquired under this section is canceled.

SECTION 606. CHARGING ORDER.

(A) If a beneficial interest is not freely transferable by a beneficial owner so that the transferee has all rights of the transferor, a judgment creditor of a beneficial owner may satisfy the judgment against the beneficial owner’s beneficial interest only as provided in this section.

(B) On application by a judgment creditor of a beneficial owner, the [appropriate court] may issue a charging order against the beneficial owner’s right to distributions from the trust for the unsatisfied part of the judgment and:

1. Appoint a receiver of the distributions subject to the charging order, with the power to enforce the beneficial owner’s right to a distribution; and
2. Make other orders necessary to give effect to the charging order.

(C) A charging order issued under subsection (B) is a lien on the beneficial owner’s right to distributions and requires the statutory trust to pay over to the judgment creditor any distribution that would otherwise be paid to the beneficial owner until the judgment has been satisfied.

(D) A statutory trust or beneficial owner that is not subject to a charging order issued under subsection (B) may pay to the judgment creditor the full amount due under the judgment lien and thereby succeed to the rights of the judgment creditor, including the charging order.

(E) This [act] does not deprive a beneficial owner or a transferee of the beneficial interest of any exemption applicable to the beneficial interest.

SECTION 607. TRANSACTION WITH BENEFICIAL OWNER. Subject to Section 507, a beneficial owner or related party of a beneficial owner may lend money to, borrow money from, act as a surety, guarantor, or endorser for, guarantee or assume an obligation of, provide collateral for, or do other business with the statutory trust and, subject to law other than this [act], has the same rights and obligations with respect to those matters as a person that is not a beneficial owner.

SECTION 608. BENEFICIAL OWNER’S RIGHT TO INFORMATION. A

If the trust appoints a special litigation committee, on motion by the committee made in the name of the trust, except for good cause shown, the court shall stay discovery for the time reasonably necessary to permit the committee to make its investigation. This subsection does not prevent the court from enforcing a person’s right to information under Section 508 or 608, for good cause shown, granting extraordinary relief in the form of a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction.

(b) A special litigation committee may be composed of one or more disinterested and independent individuals, who may be trustees.

(c) A special litigation committee may be appointed:

determination and shall serve each party with a copy of the determination and report. The court shall determine whether the members of the committee were disinterested and independent and whether the committee conducted its investigation and made its recommendation in good faith, independently, and with reasonable care, with the committee having the burden of proof. If the court finds that the members of the committee were disinterested and independent and that the committee acted in good faith, independently, and with reasonable care, the court shall enforce the determination of the committee. Otherwise, the court shall dissolve the stay of discovery entered under subsection (a) and allow the action to proceed under the direction of the plaintiff.

SECTION 614. PROCEEDS AND EXPENSES.
