

An amendment suggested by Stephanie Eye, edited.

SECTION 2-101. DEFINITIONS. In this [article]:

* * *

(2) “Inter-country adoption” means the adoption or placement for adoption of a foreign-born child residing outside the United States, who is eligible to immigrate to the United States [pursuant to the adoption or placement for adoption]. The term includes an adoption finalized in the child’s country of origin or in this state.

* * * * *

An amendment suggested by Steve Pennypacker, edited

SECTION 3-102. EXCEPTION TO PROHIBITED TRANSFER. A person may transfer physical custody of an adopted child to a parent, stepparent, grandparent, adult sibling, or adult uncle or aunt of the child if the person has no intent to renounce or abandon the legal rights or responsibilities as a parent or guardian of the child.