A Few Facts about

THE REVISED UNIFORM ARBITRATION ACT (2000)

PURPOSE: The 2000 Revised Uniform Arbitration Act (RUAA) is an updated version of the Uniform Arbitration Act, which has been adopted in 49 states. The RUAA reflects developments in arbitration law, which has become an increasingly utilized method of alternative dispute resolution since the time of the original Uniform Arbitration Act.

ORIGIN: Completed by the Uniform Law Commission in 2000.

ENDORSED BY: American Arbitration Association; National Academy of Arbitrators

APPROVED BY: American Bar Association

For further information about the RUAA, please contact ULC Legislative Counsel Kaitlin Wolff at (312) 450-6615 or kwolff@uniformlaws.org.

The ULC is a nonprofit formed in 1892 to create nonpartisan state legislation. Over 350 volunteer commissioners—lawyers, judges, law professors, legislative staff, and others—work together to draft laws ranging from the Uniform Commercial Code to acts on property, trusts and estates, family law, criminal law and other areas where uniformity of state law is desirable.
