THE UNIFORM UNSWORN DOMESTIC DECLARATIONS ACT

- A Summary -

The Uniform Unsworn Domestic Declarations Act (UUDDA) allows the use of unsworn declarations made under penalty of perjury in state court proceedings. Under the Act, the declarant must be physically located within the boundaries of the United States while making the declaration.

If the state's law either requires or allows use of a sworn declaration, an unsworn declaration made under the Act's rules has the same effect as a sworn declaration.

The UUDDA does not apply to:

- A deposition;
- An oath of office;
- An oath required to be given before a specified official other than a notary public;
- A declaration to be recorded under the state's real estate law; or
- An oath required by the state's law relating to self-proved wills.

Under the UUDDA, an unsworn declaration must be in substantially the following form:

I declare under penalty of perjury under the law of [insert name of the enacting state] that the foregoing is true and correct.

Signed on the day o	-	city or other location, and state)
(printed name)

The UUDDA builds upon the Unsworn Foreign Declarations Act (UUFDA), which covers unsworn declarations made outside the boundaries of the United States. States that have enacted the UUFDA should enact the Uniform Unsworn Domestic Declarations Act; states that have not enacted the UUFDA should enact the Uniform Unsworn Declarations Act.

The ULC is a nonprofit formed in 1892 to create nonpartisan state legislation. Over 350 volunteer commissioners—lawyers, judges, law professors, legislative staff, and others—work together to draft laws ranging from the Uniform Commercial Code to acts on property, trusts and estates, family law, criminal law and other areas where uniformity of state law is desirable.
