3 [ARTICLE] 1

4 GENERAL PROVISIONS AND DEFINITIONS

5
6 SECTION 101. SHORT TITLE. This [act] may be cited as the Revised Uniform
7 Durable Power of Attorney Act.

8 SECTION 102. DEFINITIONS. In this [act]:

9 (1) “Agent” means the person granted authority to act as an attorney in fact for the 10 principal under a durable power of attorney.

11 (2) “Court” means the [] court.

12 (3) “Durable power of attorney” means a record by which a principal grants to an 13 agent authority that is not terminated by the incapacity of the principal and is executed and 14 acknowledged as provided in Section 105.

15 (4) “Incapacity” means inability of an individual to manage property or business 16 affairs because of an impairment in the ability to receive and evaluate information or make 17 decisions even with the use of technological assistance, or because the individual is missing,
18 detained, or unable to return to the United States. “Incapacitated” has a corresponding meaning.

19 (5) “Person” means an individual, corporation, business trust, estate, trust,
20 partnership, limited liability company, association, joint venture, public corporation, government,
21 governmental subdivision, agency or instrumentality, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(6) “Principal” means an individual having legal capacity to contract who grants authority under a durable power of attorney.

(7) “Record” means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form.

(8) “Sign” means, with present intent to authenticate or adopt a record:

(i) to execute or adopt a tangible symbol; or

(ii) to attach to or logically associate with the record an electronic sound, symbol, or process.

(9) “State” means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, United States Virgin Islands, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

SECTION 103. KNOWLEDGE; NOTICE.

(a) Subject to subsection (b), a person has knowledge of a fact involving a durable power of attorney if the person:

(1) has actual knowledge of it;

(2) has received a notice or notification of it; or

(3) from all the facts and circumstances known to the person at the time in question, has reason to know it.

(b) An organization has notice or knowledge of a fact involving a durable power of attorney from the time it is brought to the attention of the individual conducting a transaction involving the durable power of attorney and, in any event, from the time it would have been brought to the individual’s attention if the organization had exercised due diligence. An

1 organization exercises due diligence if it maintains reasonable routines for communicating
2 significant information to the person conducting the transaction and the organization reasonably
3 complies with the routines. Due diligence does not require an individual acting for the 4 organization to communicate information unless the communication is part of the individual's 5 duties or the individual has reason to know of the transaction and that the transaction would be 6 materially affected by the information.

7 SECTION 104. DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY NOT AFFECTED BY 8 INCAPACITY OR LAPSE OF TIME. A power of attorney executed in accordance with this 9 [act] is durable unless the power of attorney provides that it is terminated by the incapacity of the 10 principal. All acts performed by an agent pursuant to a durable power of attorney, including acts 11 performed during any period of incapacity of the principal, have the same effect and inure to the 12 benefit of and bind the principal and the principal's successors in interest as if the principal had 13 capacity and performed the acts. Unless the durable power of attorney provides a time of 14 termination, the authority of an agent is exercisable notwithstanding a lapse of time since the 15 execution of the durable power of attorney.

16 SECTION 105. EXECUTION. The principal must sign a durable power of attorney or 17 direct another individual to sign on behalf of the principal in the principal's presence, and must 18 acknowledge the signature before a notary public or other person authorized to take 19 acknowledgments.

20 SECTION 106. RECORDING. A durable power of attorney need not be recorded to 21 be valid.

1 SECTION 107. DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY EXECUTED IN FOREIGN
2 JURISDICTION. A durable power of attorney executed in another state or jurisdiction in 3 compliance with the law of that state or jurisdiction or the law of this state is valid in this state.

4 SECTION 108. TWO OR MORE CONCURRENT AGENTS.

5 (a) A principal may designate more than one agent in a durable power of attorney.

6 (b) Unless the durable power of attorney or this section otherwise provides,
7 authority granted to two or more concurrent agents is exercisable only by their unanimous
8 consent.

9 (c) If prompt action is required to accomplish the purposes of the durable power
10 of attorney or to avoid irreparable injury to the principal's interests and an agent is unavailable
11 because of absence, illness, or other temporary incapacity, the other agents may exercise
12 authority under the durable power of attorney as if they were the only agents. Other persons may 13 rely on a writing or other record by the agent or agents who exercise authority under this 14 subsection as conclusive proof that the nonparticipating agent is unavailable.

15 (d) If a vacancy occurs in one or more of the designations of agent under a 16 durable power of attorney, the remaining agents may exercise authority as if they were the only 17 agents. Other persons may rely on a writing or other record by the agent or agents who exercise 18 authority under this subsection as conclusive proof that there is a vacancy in one or more of the 19 designations of agent under a durable power of attorney.

20 (e) An agent is not liable for the actions of another agent unless the agent 21 participates in, knowingly acquiesces in, or conceals a breach of fiduciary duty committed by the 22 other agent.

1 SECTION 109. SUCCESSOR AGENTS.

2 (a) A principal may designate one or more successor agents to act if an initial or 3 predecessor agent resigns, dies, becomes incapacitated, is not qualified to serve, or declines to 4 serve. A principal may grant authority to another person, designated by name, by office, or by 5 function, including an initial or successor agent, to designate one or more successor agents.

6 (b) Unless a durable power of attorney otherwise provides, a successor agent has 7 the same authority as that granted to an initial agent. Other persons may rely on a writing or 8 other record by a successor agent who exercises authority under this subsection as conclusive
9 proof that the authority of the initial or predecessor agent is terminated.

10 (c) A successor agent is not liable for the actions of a predecessor agent.

11 SECTION 110. NOMINATION OF GUARDIAN; RELATION OF AGENT TO 12 COURT-APPOINTED FIDUCIARY.

13 (a) In a durable power of attorney, a principal may nominate a conservator, 14 guardian of the principal's estate, or guardian of the principal's person for consideration by the 15 court if protective proceedings for the principal's estate or person are thereafter commenced. The 16 court shall make its appointment in accordance with the principal's most recent nomination in a 17 durable power of attorney except for good cause or disqualification.

18 (b) If, after the execution of a durable power of attorney, a court appoints a 19 conservator or guardian of the principal's estate, or other fiduciary charged with the management 20 of all of the principal's property or all of the property except specified exclusions, the agent is 21 accountable to the fiduciary as well as to the principal. The agent's authority continues until 22 limited, suspended, or terminated by the court.

1 SECTION 111. DISSOLUTION OR ANNULMENT OF PRINCIPAL'S

2 MARRIAGE TO AGENT; COMMENCEMENT OF PROCEEDINGS. Unless a durable
3 power of attorney otherwise provides, authority granted to a principal's spouse in a durable
4 power of attorney is terminated upon commencement of proceedings for dissolution or 5 annulment of the spouse's marriage to the principal. If the spouse's authority is terminated solely 6 by reason of the commencement of dissolution or annulment proceedings, the authority is revived
7 by the termination of the proceedings without a court order of dissolution or annulment, or upon 8 the spouse's remarriage to the principal.

9 SECTION 112. WHEN EFFECTIVE.

10 (a) An agent's authority under a durable power of attorney becomes effective
11 when executed unless the principal otherwise specifies that it is to become effective at a future
12 date, or upon the occurrence of a future event or contingency.

13 (b) If a durable power of attorney becomes effective upon the occurrence of a 14 future event or contingency, the principal may designate one or more persons who have authority
15 to determine conclusively in a writing or other record that the event or contingency has occurred.
16 Other persons may rely on the determination of a person so designated by the principal without 17 liability to the principal or to any other person, whether or not the event or contingency has 18 actually occurred.

19 (c) If the durable power of attorney becomes effective upon the principal's 20 incapacity and the principal has not designated one or more persons to have authority to 21 determine conclusively that the principal is incapacitated, the durable power of attorney becomes 22 effective upon a determination in a writing or other record by a physician that the principal is

1 incapacitated. Other persons may rely on the determination of the physician without liability to 2 the principal or to any other person.

3 (d) Unless a durable power of attorney otherwise provides, a person designated by 4 the principal to make a determination of the principal's incapacity may act as the principal's
5 personal representative pursuant to sections 1171 through 1179 of the Social Security Act, 42
6 U.S.C. Section 1320d (sections 262 and 264 of Public Law 104-191) [or successor provisions]
7 and applicable regulations, to access the principal's health care information and communicate
8 with the principal's health care provider or physician.

9 SECTION 113. COMPENSATION OF AGENT. If a durable power of attorney does 10 not specify an agent's compensation, the agent is entitled to compensation that is reasonable 11 under the circumstances.

12 SECTION 114. REIMBURSEMENT OF AGENT. Except as otherwise provided in a 13 durable power of attorney, an agent is entitled to reimbursement of reasonable expenses
14 advanced by the agent on behalf of the principal.

15 SECTION 115. AGENT'S DUTIES.

16 (a) An agent's exercise of authority granted by the principal under a durable
17 power of attorney creates a fiduciary relationship.

18 (b) Except as otherwise provided in the durable power of attorney, the duties of 19 an agent, when exercising authority granted by the principal, include the duty to:

20 (1) act in good faith and with prudence for the best interest of the 21 principal;

22 (2) subject to subsection (c), avoid a conflict of interest that would impair

1 the agent's ability to act in the best interest of the principal;

2 (3) keep a complete record of all receipts, disbursements, and transactions
3 conducted on behalf of the principal;

4 (4) perform no act beyond the authority granted by the principal;

5 (5) complete an act undertaken on behalf of the principal and continue acts
6 which are within the reasonable expectation of the principal and the agent until the durable power
7 of attorney is terminated or revoked, or the agent dies or resigns pursuant to Section 121; and

8 (6) take the principal's estate plan into account to the extent known to the 9 agent and attempt to preserve the plan if consistent with the principal's best interest based on all 10 relevant factors, including the principal's obligations, need for maintenance, and eligibility for 11 public benefits or assistance under a statute or governmental regulation, but an agent is not liable
12 to any beneficiary of the plan for failure to preserve the principal's estate plan unless the agent
13 acts in bad faith.

14 (c) An agent who acts in good faith and with prudence for the best interest of the 15 principal is not liable solely because the agent also benefits from the act or has an individual or 16 conflicting interest in relation to the property or affairs of the principal.

17 (d) Except as otherwise provided in the durable power of attorney, an agent is not 18 required to disclose receipts, disbursements, or transactions conducted on behalf of the principal 19 unless requested by the principal, a guardian, conservator, or other fiduciary appointed for the 20 principal, any governmental agency having regulatory authority to protect the welfare of the 21 principal, or, upon the death of the principal, by the personal representative or successor in

1 interest of the principal's estate, or ordered by a court. If so requested, the agent shall comply
2 within 30 days or provide a writing or other record substantiating why additional time is needed.

3 SECTION 116. EXONERATION. A provision in a durable power of attorney
4 relieving the agent of liability for breach of duty or providing that a person challenging the 5 performance of an agent has the burden of proof concerning the agent's breach of duty is binding
6 on the principal and the principal's successors in interest except to the extent that the provision:

7 (1) relieves the agent of liability for breach of duty committed in bad faith or with 8 reckless indifference to the purposes of the durable power of attorney or the interests of the 9 principal; or

10 (2) was inserted as a result of an abuse by the agent of a confidential or fiduciary 11 relationship with the principal.

12 SECTION 117. JUDICIAL REVIEW. The court may construe a durable power of 13 attorney, review the agent's conduct, and grant appropriate relief. Persons who may petition the 14 court include:

15 (1) the principal;

16 (2) a conservator, guardian of the estate, or other fiduciary charged with 17 management of the principal's property;

18 (3) the principal's spouse, parent, or descendant;

19 (4) a person who could qualify as an intestate successor of the principal upon the 20 principal's death;

21 (5) a person named as a beneficiary to receive any property, benefit, or contractual
22 right on the principal's death, or as a beneficiary of a trust created by or for the principal;

1 (6) a governmental agency having regulatory authority to protect the welfare of 2 the principal; and

3 (7) the principal's caregiver or any other person who demonstrates sufficient
4 interest in the principal's welfare.

5 SECTION 118. AGENT'S LIABILITY. An agent that violates this [act] or acts 6 outside the durable power of attorney and causes loss or damage to the principal or the 7 principal's successors in interest is liable to the principal or the principal's successors in interest
8 for the loss or damage, attorney's fees, and expenses paid from the principal's estate for the 9 defense of the agent in an action to review the agent's conduct, and any amount awarded under 10 Section 120 to the prevailing party that brought the action to review the agent's conduct.

11 SECTION 119. NONCOMPENSATED AGENT; PROTECTION FROM ERRORS
12 IN JUDGMENT. A noncompensated agent is not liable to the principal or the principal's
13 successors in interest for a loss due to error of judgment or for the act or default of another 14 person unless the loss results from the agent's bad faith or intentional wrongdoing.

15 SECTION 120. AWARD OF ATTORNEY'S FEES AND EXPENSES TO 16 PREVAILING PARTY. In an action to review an agent's conduct, the court may award
17 reasonable attorney's fees and expenses to the prevailing party.

18 SECTION 121. AGENT'S RESIGNATION; NOTICE. An agent may resign by 19 giving notice to the principal and, if the principal is incapacitated, to:

20 (1) the conservator or guardian, if one has been appointed for the principal, and a 21 concurrent agent or successor agent, if any; or

22 (2) the principal's caregiver or other person reasonably believed by the agent to

1 have sufficient interest in the principal's welfare, if the principal has neither a conservator nor a
2 guardian, and has not named concurrent or successor agents.

3 SECTION 122. PRESUMPTION OF VALIDITY. A writing or other record that 4 purports to be a durable power of attorney signed and acknowledged by the principal is presumed
5 to be a valid durable power of attorney. A person with which an agent seeks to act may not 6 require an additional or different form of power of attorney for authority granted under the 7 durable power of attorney presented by the agent. A photocopy or electronically transmitted 8 facsimile of an original durable power of attorney may be relied upon to the same extent as the 9 original. A person may rely on the validity of a durable power of attorney or a statement, writing, 10 or other record made by an agent without investigating whether the durable power of attorney is 11 valid, the agent is in fact authorized to act, or the agent deals properly with property delivered to 12 the agent.

13 SECTION 123. LIABILITY FOR REFUSAL TO ACCEPT AGENT'S
14 AUTHORITY.

15 (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), a person that refuses to accept
16 the authority of an agent to exercise a power granted under a durable power of attorney is liable
17 to the principal or the principal's successors in interest to the same extent as the person would be 18 liable had the person refused to accept the authority of a principal who has capacity to act on the 19 principal's own behalf. The amount recoverable for refusal to accept an agent's authority is the 20 total of actual damages or $1000, whichever is greater, plus costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

21 (b) A person that refuses to accept the authority of an agent to exercise a power 22 granted under a durable power of attorney is not liable under subsection (a) if:

1 (1) the person has knowledge of the revocation of the durable power of
2 attorney before the exercise of the power;

3 (2) the duration of the authority specified in the durable power of attorney
4 has expired;

5 (3) the person has knowledge of the death of the principal;

6 (4) the person reasonably believes that the durable power of attorney is not
7 valid under the law of this state and provides the agent with a writing or other record not more 8 than 10 business days after the refusal, describing the reason that the durable power of attorney is 9 not valid under the law of this state; or

10 (5) the person reasonably believes that the agent does not have authority to 11 perform the act requested and provides the agent with a writing or other record not more than 10
12 business days after the refusal, describing the reason the person believes the agent lacks that 13 authority under the durable power of attorney.

14 (c) This section does not abrogate any other cause of action or relief at law or in 15 equity or to which the principal or agent is entitled under another statute or at common law.

16 SECTION 124. REVOCATION. Except as otherwise provided in the durable power of 17 attorney, a durable power of attorney may be revoked only by a writing or other record that 18 identifies the durable power of attorney revoked and is signed by the principal. A durable power
19 of attorney that conflicts with an earlier power of attorney revokes the earlier power of attorney
20 to the extent of the conflict.

21 SECTION 125. TERMINATION. Except as otherwise provided in the durable power 22 of attorney, a durable power of attorney continues until revocation by the principal or the death of

1 the principal. Revocation by the principal or the death of a principal does not, however,
2 terminate the agency as to the agent or other person that, without knowledge of the revocation by
3 the principal or the death of the principal, acts in good faith under the power. An act so 4 performed, unless otherwise invalid or unenforceable, binds the principal and the successors in 5 interest of the principal.

6 SECTION 126. PRINCIPLES OF LAW AND EQUITY. Unless displaced by the 7 particular provisions of this [act], the principles of law and equity supplement its provisions.

1 [ARTICLE] 2

2 POWERS

3
4 SECTION 201. GENERAL GRANT OF AUTHORITY; POWERS WHICH 5 REQUIRE SPECIFIC AUTHORIZATION.

6 (a) Subject to subsection (b), if a principal grants to an agent general authority
7 that is not limited to one or more express acts, subjects, or purposes for which general authority
8 is granted, the agent has all the authority to act that the principal would have if the principal had 9 capacity to contract, other than an act for which the personal action of the principal is required.

10 (b) An agent has authority under a durable power of attorney to do the following 11 only if a principal expressly grants the specific authority to:

12 (1) create, modify, or revoke a trust;

13 (2) fund with the principal's property a trust not created by the principal or 14 a person authorized to create a trust on behalf of the principal;

15 (3) make or revoke a gift of the principal's property in trust or otherwise;

16 (4) create or change rights of survivorship in the principal's property or in 17 property in which the principal may have an interest;

18 (5) designate or change the designation of a beneficiary to receive any 19 property, benefit, or contractual right on the principal's death;

20 (6) create in the agent or a person to whom the agent owes a legal duty of 21 support the right to receive property, a benefit, or a contractual right in which the principal has an 22 interest; or

(7) delegate, subject to Section 218, the powers granted under the durable power of attorney to another person.

SECTION 202. INCORPORATION OF POWERS; SIMILAR OR OVERLAPPING POWERS; EXISTING, LATER ACQUIRED, AND FOREIGN INTERESTS; MODIFICATION.

(a) An agent has a power described in this [article] if the durable power of attorney incorporates the power by:

(1) referring to a descriptive caption in Sections 204 through 219; or

(2) citing to a specific section of Sections 204 through 219.

(b) A reference in a durable power of attorney to a descriptive caption in Sections 204 through 219 or a citation to a specific section of Sections 204 through 219 incorporates the entire section as if it were set out in full in the durable power of attorney.

(c) If powers are similar or overlap, the broadest power controls.

(d) The powers described in Sections 204 through 219 are exercisable with respect to property or rights the principal has when the durable power of attorney is executed or an interest acquired after execution, whether or not the property is located in this state, and whether or not the powers are exercised or the durable power of attorney is executed in this state.

(e) The principal may modify a power incorporated by reference.

SECTION 203. CONSTRUCTION OF POWERS GENERALLY. By executing a durable power of attorney that incorporates by reference a power described in Sections 204 through 219, except to the extent modified in the durable power of attorney, the principal authorizes the agent with respect to that subject to:

1 (1) demand, receive, and obtain by litigation or otherwise, money or other thing of 2 value to which the principal is, may become, or claims to be entitled, and conserve, invest,
3 disburse, or use anything so received for the purposes intended;

4 (2) contract in any manner with any person, on terms agreeable to the agent, to 5 accomplish a purpose of a transaction, and perform, rescind, reform, release, or modify the 6 contract or another contract made by or on behalf of the principal;

7 (3) execute, acknowledge, seal, and deliver a deed, revocation, mortgage, security
8 agreement, lease, notice, check, promissory note, electronic funds transfer, release, or other
9 instrument or communication the agent considers desirable to accomplish a purpose of a 10 transaction;

11 (4) prosecute, defend, submit to arbitration or mediation, settle, and propose or 12 accept a compromise with respect to, a claim existing in favor of or against the principal or 13 intervene in litigation relating to the claim;

14 (5) seek on the principal's behalf the assistance of a court to carry out an act
15 authorized by the principal in the durable power of attorney;

16 (6) engage, compensate, and discharge an attorney, accountant, expert witness, or 17 other assistant;

18 (7) keep appropriate records of each transaction, including an accounting of 19 receipts and disbursements;

2 participates, including a plan for a self-employed individual;
- 3 (2) make voluntary contributions to those plans;
- 4 (3) exercise the investment powers available under a self-directed retirement plan;
- 5 (4) make a rollover of benefits into another retirement plan;
- 6 (5) if authorized by the plan, borrow from, sell assets to, purchase assets from, or 7 request distributions from the plan; and
- 8 (6) waive the right of the principal to be a beneficiary of a joint or survivor
9 annuity if the principal is a spouse who is not employed.

10 SECTION 216. TAXES. Language granting power with respect to tax matters 11 authorizes the agent to:

- 12 (1) prepare, sign, and file federal, state, local, and foreign income, gift, payroll,
13 Federal Insurance Contributions Act, and other tax returns, claims for refunds, requests for 14 extension of time, petitions regarding tax matters, and any other tax-related documents, including 15 receipts, offers, waivers, consents, including consents and agreements under the Internal Revenue
16 Code, 26 U.S.C. Section 2032A [or successor provisions], closing agreements, and any power of 17 attorney required by the Internal Revenue Service or other taxing authority with respect to a tax 18 year upon which the statute of limitations has not run and the following 25 tax years;
- 19 (2) pay taxes due, collect refunds, post bonds, receive confidential information,
20 and contest deficiencies determined by the Internal Revenue Service or other taxing authority;
- 21 (3) exercise any election available to the principal under federal, state, local, or 22 foreign tax law; and

(4) act for the principal in all tax matters for all periods before the Internal Revenue Service, and any other taxing authority.

SECTION 217. GIFTS. Except as otherwise provided in Section 201(b), language granting power with respect to gifts authorizes the agent to make gifts of any of the principal's property to individuals or organizations within the limits of the annual exclusion under the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. Section 2503(b) [or successor provisions], as the agent determines to be in the principal's best interest based on all relevant factors, including:

(1) the value and nature of the principal's property;

(2) the principal's foreseeable obligations and need for maintenance;

(3) minimization of income, estate, inheritance, generation-skipping transfer or gift taxes;

(4) eligibility for public benefits or assistance under a statute or governmental regulation; and

(5) the principal's personal history of making or joining in making gifts.

SECTION 218. DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY. Language granting power with respect to delegation of authority authorizes the agent to delegate revocably by writing or other record to one or more persons a power granted to the agent by the principal. The agent remains responsible to the principal for the exercise or nonexercise of the delegated authority.

SECTION 219. ANY OTHER MATTER. Except as otherwise provided in Section 201(b), language granting power with respect to any other matter authorizes the agent to exercise all possible powers of the principal with respect to all possible types of property and interests in

- 1 property except to the extent the principal has limited the generality of the grant by withholding a
- 2 specific power or by specifying another limitation in the durable power of attorney.

13 IMPORTANT INFORMATION

14
15 You are the Principal. You are using this durable power of attorney to grant authority 16 to another person, known as your agent, to make decisions regarding your money and 17 property.

18
19 Your agent will have the powers that you have indicated below to make decisions
20 about your money and property without advance notice to you or approval by you.
21 The powers that you give to your agent are explained more fully in Article 2 of the 22 Revised Uniform Durable Power of Attorney Act [,insert citation to state statute 23 here].

24
25 This durable power of attorney does not authorize anyone to make medical or other
26 health care decisions for you. You may sign a separate document to grant authority 27 for medical and health care decisions.

28
29 The authority granted in this durable power of attorney will be effective even if you 30 no longer have the capacity to make your own decisions about your money and 31 property. The authority will terminate on your death unless you revoke it earlier.

32
33 If you have any questions about this document or the powers you are granting to your 34 agent, you should obtain legal advice.

29 IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR AGENT:
30

31 As the Agent, once you exercise authority granted to you by the Principal, a fiduciary 32 relationship is created between you and the Principal. Unless otherwise modified in 33 this durable power of attorney, your duties include a duty to:
34

- 35 (1) Act in good faith and with prudence for the best interest of the Principal;
36 (2) Avoid conflicts of interest that would impair your ability to act in the 37 best interest of the Principal;
38 (3) Keep a complete record of all receipts, disbursements, and transactions
39 conducted on behalf of the Principal;
40 (4) Do nothing beyond the authority granted in this durable power of attorney;

- 1 (5) Complete an act undertaken on behalf of the Principal and continue
2 acts within the reasonable expectation of yourself and the Principal until 3 this durable power of attorney is terminated or revoked, or you resign;
4 and
5 (6) Preserve the Principal's estate plan to the extent known to you when 6 preservation of the estate plan is consistent with the Principal's best interest.
7

8 If you violate the Revised Uniform Durable Power of Attorney Act or act outside the 9 scope of this durable power of attorney, you may be liable for the loss or damage
10 caused by your violation together with reasonable attorney's fees and expenses.
11

12 In any act performed under the authority of the durable power of attorney as an agent
13 for the Principal, you must disclose your designation as the agent of the Principal by 14 writing or printing the name of the Principal and signing your own name as "Agent"
15 in the following manner: Principal's Name by (Your Signature) as Agent.
16

17 If there is anything about this document or your duties that you do not understand, you 18 should obtain legal advice.
