3 Prefatory Note

5 Arbitration is a process in which the parties, usually spouses, agree to submit one or more
6 issues arising from the dissolution of their relationship to a neutral third party for resolution.
7 Arbitration resembles litigation in that a third person makes a decision based on the facts
8 presented. The major difference is that the parties choose and pay for the arbitrator. The parties
9 can choose a family law specialist who has represented both fathers and mothers, a retired
10 domestic relations judge, or another professional to arbitrate all, or just a part, of a case.
11

12 While used extensively in labor and contracts law, arbitration has only recently become a 13 serious option in family law cases. The move to arbitration developed as increasing numbers of 14 contested family law cases have flooded court dockets resulting in delays in getting hearings and 15 trials. Social science literature documents the harm to children from prolonged adversarial
16 custody disputes. Arbitration offers an alternative for those who want an experienced decision-
17 maker in a proceeding that is potentially faster, more confidential, and less adversarial. In 18 contrast to a mediator who helps parties resolve their own dispute, the arbitrator makes the 19 decision, called an award.
20

21 Arbitration clauses have begun to appear in premarital, separation and mediated
22 settlement agreements. As early as 1990, the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers
23 (AAML) adopted Rules for Arbitration of Financial Issues. In 2005, the AAML adopted a Model
24 Family Law Arbitration Act. Although no state has adopted its act, the AAML conducts trainings
25 to certify family law arbitrators. The American Arbitration Association has developed a family
26 dispute service and offers mediation services, as well as arbitration. Several states have statutes 27 authorizing arbitration of all issues arising at divorce, including property, support, and child
28 custody. A minority of states exclude child-related issues from arbitration. Most states, 29 however, simply rely on their commercial arbitration statutes for family law disputes.
30

31 The Uniform Law Commission Executive Committee appointed the Family Law
32 Arbitration Study Committee in April 2012. After considering the feasibility and desirability of 33 a uniform or model act on family law arbitration for several months, the Study Committee
34 unanimously recommended that a drafting committee be appointed to develop a free-standing act
35 on family law arbitration. The Study Committee further suggested that the act need only contain 36 the features of arbitration law that are essential for family law arbitration and are typically not 37 addressed by commercial arbitration statutes. The Study Committee envisioned an act that 38 would incorporate by reference the existing structure of a state’s commercial arbitration statutes
39 – whether it is the original Uniform Arbitration Act (1955) or the 2000 Revised Uniform
40 Arbitration Act (RUAA). In 2013 the Uniform Law Commission approved a drafting committee
41 to write a Family Law Arbitration Act. The Committee originally tried to draft a free-standing 42 act addressing family law arbitration in full, rather than a partial act with references that 43 incorporate other arbitration law in the state. As the drafting process developed, it appeared a

1 free standing act would repeat much of the RUAA. Therefore, the Committee chose to 2 incorporate by reference the existing arbitration law of a state on most points. For the most 3 party, we have included the relevant RUAA provision only when the UAA failed to cover an 4 issue, such as giving arbitrators the power to conduct arbitration in a manner appropriate to fair
5 and expeditious disposition of the proceeding, discovery powers, and immunity.

1 (B) to attach to or logically associate with the record an electronic symbol, sound,
2 or process.

3 (10) “State” means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the 4 United States Virgin Islands, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of 5 the United States. The term includes a federally recognized Indian tribe.

6 SECTION 3. SCOPE.

7 (a) This [act] governs arbitration of a family law dispute.

8 (b) This [act] does not authorize an arbitrator to make an award that:

9 (1) grants a [divorce] [dissolution of marriage];

10 (2) terminates parental rights;

11 (3) grants an adoption or guardianship of a minor or incapacitated individual; [or]

12 (4) determines the status of [dependency] [a child in need of protection][;or 13 (5) determines other specified dispute to be excluded from arbitration].

14 Legislative Note: In subsection (b)(4), a state should insert the terminology under state law to 15 refer to the status of dependency or a child in need of protection. If a state wants to exclude 16 child-related disputes or other family law dispute from arbitration under this act, it should enact
17 subsection (b)(5) and identify the category of dispute to be excluded. If a state excludes child-
18 related disputes from arbitration, the state should delete the following subsections from the act:
19 Sections (5)(c); 12(c); 13(c)(3) and (c)(10); 14(b); 15(c); 16(c); and 19(b), (c), and (d).

20
21 SECTION 4. APPLICABLE LAW.

22 (a) Except as otherwise provided in this [act], the law applicable to the arbitration process
23 is [cite to this state’s statutory law and procedural rules governing contractual arbitration].

24 (b) In determining the merits of a family law dispute, an arbitrator shall apply the law of 25 this state other than this [act], including its choice of law rules.

26 SECTION 5. ARBITRATION AGREEMENT.

27 (a) An arbitration agreement must:

- 1 (1) be in a record signed by the parties;
- 2 (2) identify the arbitrator or a method of selecting an arbitrator; and
- 3 (3) identify the family law dispute the parties intend to arbitrate.

4 (b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), an agreement in a record to arbitrate
5 an existing or subsequent family law dispute between the parties is valid and enforceable as any 6 other contract and irrevocable except on a ground that exists at law or in equity for the 7 revocation of a contract.

8 (c) An agreement to arbitrate a subsequent child-related dispute between the parties is 9 unenforceable unless the parties affirm the agreement at the time of the dispute or a court has 10 approved or incorporated the agreement in an order issued in a prior family law proceeding.

11 (d) If a party objects to arbitration on the ground there is no arbitration agreement or the 12 agreement does not include a family law dispute, the court shall decide whether the parties
13 entered into a valid agreement and whether a family law dispute is subject to the agreement.

14 (e) Unless otherwise required by law of this state other than this [act], the parties may 15 agree that arbitration is confidential.

16 SECTION 6. NOTICE OF ARBITRATION. A party may initiate arbitration by 17 giving notice to arbitrate to the other party in the manner specified in the arbitration agreement
18 or, in the absence of a specified manner, under the law and procedural rules of this state other
19 than this [act] governing contractual arbitration.

20 SECTION 7. MOTION FOR JUDICIAL RELIEF.

21 (a) A motion for judicial relief under this [act] must be made to the court in which a
22 proceeding is pending involving a family law dispute subject to arbitration or, if no proceeding
23 is pending, to a court with jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter.

1 (b) On motion of a party, a court may compel arbitration if the parties have entered into
2 an enforceable agreement to arbitrate a family law dispute under this [act] unless the court
3 determines the arbitration should not proceed under Section 12.

4 (c) On motion of a party, the court shall stay arbitration if it determines:

5 (1) there is no agreement to arbitrate;

6 (2) a family law dispute is not subject to arbitration; or

7 (3) under Section 12, that arbitration should not proceed.

8 (d) Unless prohibited by an arbitration agreement, on motion of a party, the court may 9 order consolidation of separate arbitrations involving the same parties and a common issue of 10 law or fact if necessary for the fair and expeditious resolution of the family law dispute.

11 SECTION 8. QUALIFICATION AND SELECTION OF ARBITRATOR.

12 (a) If the parties agree to the selection of an arbitrator or the method of selection of an 13 arbitrator, the agreement controls.

14 (b) Unless waived by the parties, an arbitrator must be:

15 (1) an attorney in good standing admitted to practice [or an attorney 16 or judge on retired status] in a state; and

17 (2) trained in identifying domestic violence and child abuse [according to standards
18 established under law of this state other than this [act] for a judicial officer assigned to hear a 19 family law proceeding].

20 (c) If an arbitrator selected under subsection (a) is unable to act or if the agreed on 21 method of selecting an arbitrator fails, on motion of a party the court shall select an arbitrator.

22 Legislative Note: If a state has judicial education requirements on the topics of domestic 23 violence and child abuse, the state should enact the bracketed language in subsection (b)(2).
24 States that do not have any such requirements should delete the bracketed language.
25

1 SECTION 9. DISCLOSURE BY ARBITRATOR; DISQUALIFICATION.

2 (a) Before agreeing to serve as an arbitrator, the individual, after making reasonable 3 inquiry, shall disclose to all parties any known fact a reasonable individual would believe is 4 likely to affect:

5 (1) the impartiality of the arbitrator in the arbitration, including bias, a financial or 6 personal interest in the outcome of the arbitration, or an existing or past relationship with a party,
7 a party's attorney, or a witness; or

8 (2) the arbitrator's ability to make a timely award.

9 (b) An arbitrator, the parties, and the parties' attorneys have a continuing obligation to 10 disclose to all parties any known fact a reasonable individual would believe is likely to affect the 11 impartiality of the arbitrator.

12 (c) An objection to the selection or continued service of an arbitrator and a motion for a 13 stay of arbitration and disqualification of the arbitrator must be made under the law and 14 procedural rules of this state other than this [act] governing contractual arbitration.

15 (d) If a disclosure required by subsection (a)(1) or (b) is not made, on motion of a party
16 not later than [30] days after the failure to disclose is known or by the exercise of reasonable care 17 should have been known to the party, the court may:

18 (1) suspend the arbitration;

19 (2) vacate an award under Section 19; or

20 (3) if an award has been confirmed, grant other appropriate relief under law of 21 this state other than this [act].

22 (e) If the parties agree to discharge an arbitrator or the arbitrator is disqualified, the 23 parties by agreement shall select a new arbitrator or may request the court to select another

1 arbitrator as provided in Section 8.

2 SECTION 10. PARTY PARTICIPATION.

3 (a) A party may:

4 (1) be represented in an arbitration by an attorney;

5 (2) be accompanied by an individual who will not be called as a witness; and

6 (3) participate in the arbitration to the full extent permitted under the law and

7 procedural rules of this state other than this [act] governing contractual arbitration.

8 (b) A party or party's representative may not communicate ex parte with the arbitrator

9 except to the extent allowed in a family law proceeding for communication with a judge.

10 SECTION 11. TEMPORARY AWARD.

11 (a) Before an arbitrator is selected and able to act, on motion of a party, the court may 12 enter a temporary order under [insert reference to this state's statutes or rules governing issuance

13 of a temporary order in a family law proceeding].

14 (b) After an arbitrator is selected and able to act:

15 (1) the arbitrator may make a temporary award under [insert this state's statutes or

16 rules governing a temporary order in a family law proceeding] to the same extent as a court in a

17 family law proceeding; and

18 (2) if the matter is urgent and the arbitrator is not able to act in a timely manner or

19 provide an adequate remedy, on motion of a party, the court may enter a temporary order.

20 (c) On motion of a party, at any time before the court confirms a final award, the court

21 under Section 16, 18, or 19 may confirm, correct, vacate, or amend a temporary award made

22 under subsection (b)(1).

23 (d) On motion of a party, the court may enforce a subpoena or other interim award issued

1 by an arbitrator for the fair and expeditious disposition of the arbitration.

2 SECTION 12. PROTECTION OF PARTY OR CHILD.

3 (a) “Protection order” means an injunction or other order, issued under the domestic-
4 violence, family-violence, or anti-stalking laws of the issuing jurisdiction, to prevent an 5 individual from engaging in a violent or threatening act against, harassment of, contact or 6 communication with, or being in physical proximity to another individual who is a party or a 7 child under the custodial responsibility of a party.

8 (b) If a party is subject to a protection order or an arbitrator determines there is a 9 reasonable basis to believe a party’s safety or ability to participate effectively in arbitration is at 10 risk, an arbitration may not proceed unless the party at risk affirms the arbitration agreement in a 11 record and the court determines:

- 12 (1) the affirmation is informed and voluntary;
- 13 (2) arbitration is not inconsistent with the protection order; and
- 14 (3) reasonable procedures are in place to protect the party from risk of harm,
15 harassment, or intimidation.

16 (c) If an arbitrator finds a reasonable basis under law of this state other than this [act] to 17 believe that a child who is the subject of a child-related dispute is abused or neglected, the 18 arbitrator shall terminate the arbitration of the child-related dispute and report the abuse or 19 neglect to the [state child protection authority].

20 (d) An arbitrator may make a temporary award under Section 11 to protect a party or 21 child from harm, harassment, or intimidation.

22 (e) On motion of a party, the court may stay arbitration or review a determination or 23 award made by an arbitrator under this section.

1 (f) This section supplements remedies available under law of this state other than this 2 [act] for the protection of victims of domestic violence, family violence, stalking, harassment, or 3 similar abuse.

4 SECTION 13. POWERS AND DUTIES OF ARBITRATOR.

5 (a) An arbitrator shall provide each party a right to be heard, present evidence material to 6 the family law dispute, and cross-examine witnesses.

7 (b) An arbitrator may conduct an arbitration in a manner the arbitrator considers 8 appropriate for a fair and expeditious disposition and, unless otherwise agreed by the parties,
9 select the rules for conducting the arbitration.

10 (c) Unless the parties otherwise agree in a record, the arbitrator's powers are the same as 11 those of a judge in a family law proceeding under law of this state other than this [act] and 12 include the power to:

13 (1) hold conferences with the parties before a hearing;

14 (2) determine the date, time, and location of a hearing;

15 (3) require a party to provide:

16 (A) a copy of a relevant court order;

17 (B) information required to be disclosed in a family law proceeding under 18 law of this state other than this [act]; and

19 (C) a proposed award that addresses each issue in arbitration.

20 (4) meet with or interview a child who is the subject of a child-related dispute;

21 (5) appoint an expert;

22 (6) administer an oath or affirmation and issue a subpoena for the attendance of a 23 witness or the production of documents and other evidence at a hearing;

- 1 (7) compel discovery concerning the family law dispute being arbitrated and 2 determine the date, time, and place of discovery;
- 3 (8) determine the admissibility and weight of evidence;
- 4 (9) permit a deposition of a witness for use as evidence at a hearing;
- 5 (10) for good cause, prohibit a party from disclosing information;
- 6 (11) appoint an attorney, guardian ad litem, or other representative for a child;
- 7 (12) impose a procedure to protect a party or child from risk of harm, harassment,
8 or intimidation;
- 9 (13) allocate arbitration fees, attorney's fees, expert witness fees, and other costs 10 to the parties; and
- 11 (14) impose a sanction on a party for bad faith or harassing conduct during the 12 arbitration.

13 (d) An arbitrator may not allow ex parte communication except to the extent allowed in a 14 family law proceeding for communication with a judge.

15 SECTION 14. RECORD OF HEARING.

16 (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) or required by law of this state other 17 than this [act], an arbitration hearing need not be recorded unless ordered by the arbitrator,
18 provided by the arbitration agreement, or requested by a party.

19 (b) An arbitrator shall make a verbatim record of any part of an arbitration hearing
20 concerning a child-related dispute.

21 SECTION 15. AWARD.

22 (a) An arbitrator shall make an award in a record, dated and signed by the arbitrator. The 23 arbitrator shall give notice of the award to each party by a method agreed on by the parties or, if

1 the parties have not agreed on a method, under the law and procedural rules of this state other
2 than this [act] governing contractual arbitration.

3 (b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), the award must state the reasons on 4 which it based unless otherwise agreed by the parties.

5 (c) An award determining a child-related dispute must state the reasons on which it is 6 based as required by law of this state other than this [act] for a court order in a family law 7 proceeding.

8 (d) An award is enforceable as a judgment when confirmed under Section 16.

9 SECTION 16. CONFIRMATION OF AWARD.

10 (a) After an arbitrator gives notice under Section 15(a) of an award, including an award
11 corrected under Section 17, a party may move the court for an order confirming the award.

12 (b) Except as provided in subsection (c), the court shall confirm an award if:

13 (1) the parties agree to confirmation in a record; or

14 (2) the time has expired for making a motion, and no motion is pending, under 15 Section 18 or 19.

16 (c) If the award determines a child-related dispute, the court shall confirm the award
17 under subsection (b) if the court finds that the award on its face complies with law of this state
18 other than this [act] and is in the best interests of the child.

19 (d) On confirmation, an award is enforceable as a judgment.

20 SECTION 17. CORRECTION OF UNCONFIRMED AWARD BY ARBITRATOR

21 (a) On motion of a party made not later than [30] days after an arbitrator gives notice of 22 an award under Section 15(a), the arbitrator may correct an award:

23 (1) if the award has an evident mathematical miscalculation or an evident mistake

1 in the description of a person, thing, or property;

2 (2) if the award is imperfect in a matter of form not affecting the merits on the
3 issues submitted; or

4 (3) to clarify the award.

5 (b) An arbitrator shall give notice under Section 15(a) of a corrected award.

6 SECTION 18. CORRECTION OF UNCONFIRMED AWARD BY COURT.

7 (a) On motion made not later than [90] days after an arbitrator gives notice of an award
8 under Section 15(a), including an award corrected under Section 17, the court shall correct the 9 award if:

10 (1) the award has an evident mathematical miscalculation or an evident mistake in 11 the description of a person, thing, or property;

12 (2) the award is imperfect in a matter of form not affecting the merits on the 13 issues submitted; or

14 (3) the arbitrator made an award on a dispute not submitted to the arbitrator and 15 the award may be corrected without affecting the merits on the issues submitted.

16 (b) A motion under this section to correct an award may be joined with a motion to 17 vacate or amend the award under Section 19.

18 (c) Unless a motion under Section 19 is pending, on motion, the court may confirm under 19 Section 16 a corrected award.

20 SECTION 19. VACATION OR AMENDMENT OF UNCONFIRMED AWARD.

21 (a) On motion of a party, the court shall vacate an unconfirmed award if the moving 22 party establishes that:

23 (1) the award was procured by corruption, fraud, or other undue means;

1 (2) there was:
2 (A) evident partiality by the arbitrator;
3 (B) corruption by an arbitrator; or
4 (C) misconduct by the arbitrator prejudicing the rights of a party;
5 (3) an arbitrator refused to postpone the hearing on showing of sufficient cause
6 for postponement, refused to consider evidence material to the controversy, or otherwise
7 conducted the hearing contrary to Section 13, so as to prejudice substantially the rights of a 8 party.

9 (4) an arbitrator exceeded the arbitrator's powers;

10 (5) no arbitration agreement exists, unless the moving party participated in the 11 arbitration without raising the objection under Section 5(d) not later than the beginning of the 12 first arbitration hearing; or

13 (6) the arbitration was conducted without proper notice of the initiation of 14 arbitration as required under Section 6, so as to prejudice substantially the rights of a party.

15 (b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), on motion of a party, the court shall 16 vacate an unconfirmed award that determines a child-related dispute if the moving party 17 establishes that:

18 (1) the award does not comply with law of this state other than this [act] or is 19 contrary to the best interests of the child;

20 (2) the record of the hearing or the statement of reasons in the award is 21 inadequate for the court to review the award; or

22 (3) a ground for vacating an award under subsection (a) exists.

23 (c) If an award is subject to vacation under subsection (b)(1), on motion of a party, the

1 court may amend the award if amending rather than vacating is in the best interests of the child.

2 (d) The court shall determine a motion under subsection (b) or (c) based on the record of 3 the arbitration hearing and facts occurring after the hearing [or may exercise de novo review].

4 (e) A motion under this section to vacate or amend must be filed not later than [90] days:

5 (1) after the arbitrator gives the party filing the motion notice of the award or a 6 corrected award; or

7 (2) for a motion under subsection (a)(1), after the ground of corruption, fraud, or 8 undue means is known or by the exercise of reasonable care should have been known to the party
9 filing the motion.

10 (f) If the court under this section vacates an award for a reason other than the absence of 11 an enforceable arbitration agreement, the court may order a rehearing before an arbitrator. If the 12 reason for vacating the award is that the award was procured by corruption, fraud, or other undue
13 means or there was evident partiality, corruption, or misconduct by the arbitrator, the rehearing
14 must be before another arbitrator.

15 (g) If the court denies a motion under this section to vacate or amend an award, the court
16 shall confirm the award under Section 16 unless a motion is pending under Section 18.

17 Legislative Note: If a state wishes to authorize discretionary de novo review of an arbitration
18 award in a child-related dispute, it should enact all of subsection (d), including the bracketed 19 language.

20
21 SECTION 20. CLARIFICATION OF CONFIRMED AWARD. If the meaning or 22 effect of an award confirmed under Section 16 is in dispute, the parties may:

23 (1) request clarification from the arbitrator;

24 (2) agree to arbitrate the dispute before the original arbitrator or another arbitrator; or

1 (3) proceed in court under law of this state other than this [act] governing clarification of 2 a court decree in a family law proceeding.

3 SECTION 21. JUDGMENT ON AWARD.

4 (a) On granting an order confirming, vacating without directing a rehearing,
5 or amending an award under this [act], the court shall enter a judgment that conforms to the 6 order. The judgment may be recorded, docketed, and enforced as any other judgment in a civil 7 action.

8 (b) On motion of a party, the court may order that a document or parts of the record be 9 sealed or redacted to prevent public disclosure of all or part of an arbitration record or award to 10 the extent permitted under law of this state other than this [act].

16 (a) “Arbitration organization” means an association, agency, board, commission, or other

3 (e) An arbitrator is not competent to testify, and may not be required to produce records,
4 in a judicial, administrative, or similar proceeding about a statement, conduct, decision, or ruling
5 occurring during an arbitration, to the same extent as a judge of a court of this state acting in a 6 judicial capacity. This subsection does not apply:

7 (1) to the extent disclosure is necessary to determine a claim by the arbitrator
8 against a party to the arbitration; or

9 (2) to a hearing on a motion under Section 19(a)(2) or (3) to vacate an award, if 10 there is prima facie evidence that a ground for vacating the award exists.

11 (f) If a person commences a civil action against an arbitrator arising from the services of 12 the arbitrator or seeks to compel the arbitrator to testify or produce records in violation of 13 subsection (e) and the court determines that the arbitrator is immune from civil liability or is not
14 competent to testify or required to produce the records, the court shall award the arbitrator
15 reasonable attorney’s fees, costs, and reasonable expenses of litigation.
