BOARD RESOLUTION

At the meeting of the Board of Directors of International Academy of Collaborative Professionals on January 24, 2009, the following resolution was proposed and approved by the board:

WHEREAS the mission of the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals is as follows:

IACP serves members, influences the collaborative community, and benefits the public. We are committed to fostering professional excellence in conflict resolution through Collaborative Practice. We do this by protecting the essentials of Collaborative Practice, expanding collaborative Practice worldwide, and providing a central resource for education, networking, and standards of practice;

WHEREAS the Uniform collaborative Law Act supports the mission of the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Directors of the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals hereby approves in principle the Uniform Collaborative Law Act as drafted by the Uniform Law Commission as an appropriate act for those jurisdictions desiring to adopt the specific substantive law suggested therein.

Signed:

Nancy Cameron
President

Linda Solomon
