4 SECTION 303. JUDICIAL DETERMINATION OF RISK. At a release hearing, the 5 court shall determine, ~~by clear and convincing evidence~~, whether an arrested individual poses a 6 risk that is relevant to pretrial release. The individual poses a relevant risk only if the court finds 7 by clear and convincing evidence that the individual is likely to abscond, not appear, obstruct
8 justice, violate an order of protection, or cause significant harm to another person. The court 9 may consider:
